

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 137.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1900.

TWO CENTS

A REVENUE MAN WAS IN THE CITY

Made It His Business to See If Local People Were Comply-
ing With Law.

BONDS OF CITY OFFICIALS

Were Shy the Necessary Revenue
Stamp and It Cost Each
Man 50 Cents.

STAMPS WERE AFFIXED AT ONCE

Harvey H. Slusser is his name, and he hails from Cincinnati. He occupies
the position of general deputy internal revenue collector.

He did not announce his visit here
with a blaze of trumpets, but quietly
dropped in a few days ago to see if the people of this city were complying
in every respect with the internal revenue law.

Among other things he made an investigation of the bonds of the city
officers filed with Clerk Hanley. He
at once announced that all the bonds
filed by the city officials must have 50
cents worth of internal revenue
stamps on them. This was news to the officials, but they complied with
his request, and it meant a gain to the government of $52.

The collector also found that the bonds filed by the street paving contractors were minus the stamps, and
each one of their bonds were fixed
at once.

Where else he went is not known,
but he pretty generally investigated
to see if the revenue stamps were being used where the law called for
them.

In the course of his travels he discovered that one party in the city had
a sign announcing that he did a general business in stocks and bonds,
while another gentleman had advertised the fact that he had done some business in the line and was willing to do more.

Mr. Slusser informed them that they
must have a stockbroker's license,
which cost $50 per year, and in addition to this they were liable to $25
penalty, making them debtor to the extent of $75.

Both of the gentlemen were very much exercised over the matter and
one announced that he would go to fall before he would pay up.

A letter was sent to Internal Revenue Collector McCord, who sent a copy of the law which showed that neither of the parties came under the head of stock brokers.

Mr. Slusser was informed and stated that he would report their cases to
the department, and if they heard no
more from it they would know that they were on the safe side, and if they were sent for they would realize
they would have to pay the license
and penalty. He stated that his orders
were to report such cases.

The increase in the number of school
children in the state since the close of the last fiscal year amounts to 16,631. The gain for the year 1898-99
was 11,031.

By the above figures it will be seen
that Columbiana county ranks seventh
in the state in point of school enumeration with 20,168.

Of this number 5,321 is the school
enumeration of East Liverpool, or over
one-fourth of the entire school population of the county. Of the 5,321 children of school age the enrollment of
the public schools is over 2,700 and
that of the parochial schools 400,
making a total of over 3,100 scholars
that are in almost daily attendance
at the city schools.

The average per cent of attendance
of pupils of school age in a large majority of the cities is between 58 and 60 per cent.

Last year in this city it was over
58 per cent and this year it is thought

that it will run at least 60 per cent.
East Liverpool has reason to be proud of the excellent showing made.

SERIOUSLY BURNED.

LITTLE BERNICE DEIDRICK FELL
INTO THE GRATE.

The Physician is as Yet Unable to State Whether She Will Recover.

Bernice, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deidrick, of Calcutta road, met with an accident
this morning, at her home, that may cause her death.

The little one was playing in the parlor with a neighbor child, when she fell in the grate and was very badly burned.

Dr. Bailey was called and the child
made as comfortable as possible,
but he is unable as yet to tell whether
the accident will result fatally.

HE GOT CAY.

A Friend of Charles King Was Arrested And Put in Jail
Yesterday.

Harry Jones is a friend of Charles
King, who was arrested Thursday
night for being drunk and asleep in an alley between Second and Third
streets, and when he heard that King
was in jail he was very mad. He was slightly under the influence of liquor
at the Cleveland & Pittsburg passenger station yesterday afternoon, and
when he saw Officer Mahony commenced using profane language and said if King's fine was $400 he would pay it.

Mahony thought the passenger station was a bad place for Jones to swear
and he was taken to city hall and locked up. He was given a hearing
today.

A PLEASANT TIME.

Rev. And Mrs. Crawford Entertained
the Young Men of the First M. E.
Church.

Last evening the home of Rev. and Mrs. Clark Crawford was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of young men of the church and congregation
of the First M. E. church.

The quartet of the church rendered
two very pleasing selections and Miss Maud Croxall played two splendid
piano solos.

The guests enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Light refreshments were served.

DISGRACEFUL FIGHT

Took Place Yesterday in a Second Street Disreputable
Joint.

A fight occurred between a brewery
driver and a colored man in a disrepu-
table joint on Second street yesterday
afternoon, in which the negro, although much the larger man, was pretty badly used up.

It is said the fellow got no more than
he deserved, as he had been hunting
trouble all day long.

LITERARY EXERCISES.

The First of the Season Were Held
at the High School Yesterday Afternoon.

The first literary exercises of the present term were held in the high school yesterday afternoon. No decision was reached in the debate,
owing to the lack of preparation on
the part of some of the participants.
The subject: "Resolved that the world
is growing better instead of worse."

HE MAY SUE FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Albert Geon's Leg Is Still Causing
Him Much Pain and It

BE BETTER FOR 14 DAYS

Result of a Street Car Jumping the Track Near the Watering
Trough.

INJURY MAY BE PERMANENT

There is a probability that the East Liverpool Street Railway company will soon find itself defendant
in a $10,000 damage case.

Albert Geon, who was injured by being thrown from his seat when a
street car jumped the track near the
watering trough Thursday afternoon,
is still suffering extreme pain with
his left leg and has been unable to use it since the accident occurred.

He states that the physician has
told him that he will not guarantee
any better results for 14 days, and if
at the expiration of that time his leg
is not any better he will enter suit
against the company for $10,000 damages.

The accident, it is claimed, was not
due to any carelessness or negligence
on the part of Mr. Geon, who made every effort to save himself when the car jumped the track. Should the suit be entered it is probable that
the speed at which the car was being
run will cut quite a figure.

SINGING CLASS.

Singing Society on Next Monday Evening.

and the residents of that part of the

It is desired that as many members
as possible be secured for the class.

National Guard foot ball team, will leave on Monday for Monessen, where
he has secured a position in the mill
at that place.

He has been engaged to play half
back on the foot ball team there, and

fitting his health.

enumeration of East Liverpool, or over
one-fourth of the entire school population of the county. Of the 5,321 children of school age the enrollment of
that of the parochial schools 400,
making a total of over 3,100 scholars
that are in almost daily attendance
at the city schools.

The average per cent of attendance
of pupils of school age in a large ma-
60 per cent.

Last year in this city it was over

that it will run at least 60 per cent.
East Liverpool has reason to be

SERIOUSLY BURNED.

LITTLE BERNICE DEIDRICK FELL
INTO THE GRATE.

State Whether She Will Recover.

Bernice, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deldrick, of Calcutta road, met with an accident
this morning, at her home, that may
cause her death.

The little one was playing in the parlor with a neighbor child, when
she fell in the grate and was very badly burned.

Dr. Bailey was called and the child
made as comfortable as possible,
but he is unable as yet to tell whether

HE GOT CAY.

Yesterday.

Harry Jones is a friend of Charles
King, who was arrested Thursday
night for being drunk and asleep in
an alley between Second and Third
streets, and when he heard that King
was in jail he was very mad. He was
slightly under the influence of liquor
at the Cleveland & Pittsburg passenger station yesterday afternoon, and
when he saw Officer Mahony commenced using profane language and
pay it.

Mahony thought the passenger station was a bad place for Jones to swear
and he was taken to city hall and locked up. He was given a hearing
today.

A PLEASANT TIME.

Rev. And Mrs. Crawford Entertained
the Young Men of the First M. E.
Church.

Last evening the home of Rev. and Mrs. Clark Crawford was the scene of
a very pleasant gathering of young
men of the church and congregation
of the First M. E. church.

The quartet of the church rendered
two very pleasing selections and Miss Maud Croxall played two splendid
piano solos.

The guests enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Light refreshments were served.

DISGRACEFUL FIGHT

Street Disreputable
Joint.

A fight occurred between a brewery
driver and a colored man in a disrepu-
table joint on Second street yesterday

HE MAY SUE FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Albert Geon's Leg Is Still Causing

BE BETTER FOR 14 DAYS

Result of a Street Car Jumping the
Trough.

INJURY MAY BE PERMANENT

There is a probability that the East Liverpool Street Railway company will soon find itself defendant
in a $10,000 damage case.

Albert Geon, who was injured by being thrown from his seat when a
street car jumped the track near the
watering trough Thursday afternoon,
is still suffering extreme pain with
his left leg and has been unable to
use it since the accident occurred.

He states that the physician has
told him that he will not guarantee
at the expiration of that time his leg
against the company for $10,000 dam-
ages.

The accident, it is claimed, was not
due to any carelessness or negligence
on the part of Mr. Geon, who made
every effort to save himself when the car jumped the track. Should the
suit be entered it is probable that
run will cut quite a figure.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1900.

A REVENUE MAN WAS IN THE CITY

Made It His Business to See If Local People Were Comply-
ing With Law.

BONDS OF CITY OFFICIALS

Stamp and It Cost Each
Man 50 Cents.

STAMPS WERE AFFIXED AT ONCE

Harvey H. Slusser is his name, and
he hails from Cincinnati. He occupies
the position of general deputy internal
revenue collector.

He did not announce his visit here
with a blaze of trumpets, but quietly
dropped in a few days ago to see if the people of this city were complying
in every respect with the internal revenue law.

Among other things he made an investigation of the bonds of the city
officers filed with Clerk Hanley. He
at once announced that all the bonds
filed by the city officials must have 50
cents worth of internal revenue
stamps on them. This was news to
government of $52.

The collector also found that the
bonds filed by the street paving contractors were minus the stamps, and
each one of their bonds were fixed
at once.

Where else he went is not known,
but he pretty generally investigated
to see if the revenue stamps were
them.

In the course of his travels he discovered that one party in the city had
a sign announcing that he did a general business in stocks and bonds,
while another gentleman had advertised the fact that he had done some
to do more.

Mr. Slusser informed them that they
must have a stockbroker's license,
which cost $50 per year, and in addition to this they were liable to $25
penalty, making them debtor to the
extent of $75.

Both of the gentlemen were very
much exercised over the matter and
one announced that he would go to
jail before he would pay up.

A letter was sent to Internal Revenue Collector McCord, who sent a copy of the law which showed that neither of the parties came under the head of stock brokers.

Mr. Slusser was informed and stated that he would report their cases to
the department, and if they heard no
more from it they would know that
they were on the safe side, and if
they were sent for they would realize
they would have to pay the license
and penalty. He stated that his orders
were to report such cases.

ceipt of same, but no action was taken in the matter.

to select magazines for the coming year.

The following bills were ordered paid:

AFTER CUNNINGHAM.

Sheriff Noragon Will Arrest Him for Shooting Miss Laura
Green.

The "Salem Herald" of yesterday
prints the following in regard to that
shooting affray:

Sheriff Noragon, of Lisbon, was in the city today after Harry Cunningham, the potter, who was mentioned in the Herald yesterday in connection
with Miss Laura Green.

This afternoon Mayor Huxley issued
a warrant, charging Harry Cunningham with shooting with intent to kill.
Sheriff Noragon has the warrant in his possession and is now after Cunningham with good prospects of landing his man.

Cunningham is said to be a dangerous man, and Sheriff Noragon went
on the hunt after him with the assistance of Marshal Johnson and Barney McGavin, of Lisbon.

of the last fiscal year amounts to 16,631. The gain for the year 1898-99

By the above figures it will be seen
that Columbiana county ranks seventh
in the state in point of school enumeration with 20,168.

Of this number 5,321 is the school
enumeration of East Liverpool, or over
one-fourth of the entire school population of the county. Of the 5,321 children of school age the enrollment of
that of the parochial schools 400,

FROM DAYTON MILITARY HOME

Here Is a Very 'Readable Letter
From the Pen of an Old Soldier.

HE TELLS HIS STORY WELL

Men Now at the Home Who Have Held Important Commands
In Days Gone By.

GLAD M'KINLEY WAS ELECTED

Dayton, O., Nov. 15, 1900.

Dear Editor and Friends and Comrades—This Home is a mile square, on an eminence overlooking the Miami valley and the city of Dayton. The Home proper covers about 80 acres. It has many fine avenues, each one named after some northern state. They are nicely paved with fine, broad cement sidewalks, lined with splendid maple and elm shade trees. There are 36 barracks, mostly large three-story brick buildings, with all modern improvements, such as bathing rooms, hot and cold water, gas and heated up by hot air.

There are two large dining rooms with a seating capacity for 2,000 persons. Each man has his place. Everything goes to the minute by the sound of a gong, at 6 a. m., 12 m. and 5 p. m.

In one hour 4,000 have eaten, tables cleared, dishes washed, etc. There are about 6,000 members in the Home; usually about 600 on furlough and about 800 in the hospital.

The hospital is a magnificent structure, kept in the finest order. There are 10 annexes, where the cripples and convalescents stay. Every morning there is a military funeral, from one to five being taken to their last resting place.

The cemetery is nicely located on moderately sloping ground; 7,000 veterans having crossed to the great beyond and are sleeping their last sleep in this beautiful city of the dead. A fine monument marks this ground. It has a fifty-foot pedestal, with an eight-foot heroic statue of a soldier. On each corner of the marble base stands a life like marble statue of an infantryman, an artilleryman, a sailor and a cavalryman.

At the head of each grave there is a nice marble stone, giving name, company, regiment and date of death. The graves are even with the ground, covered with a fine grassy sod, which is kept like a lawn.

There is a fine Protestant and Catholic church, with great organs. Each has a chaplain and a city choir, and Memorial hall is a handsome building and has a seating capacity of 1,800. It is fitted up the same as a city opera or theatrical building, and during the winter season many entertainments are given by first-class theatrical troupes.

There is a fine club house, three stories high. On entering it, to the left is a reading and writing room, with all kinds of newspapers and magazines, envelopes, letter paper, pen and ink, free. Above are the halls of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Union Veteran Legion posts. On the opposite side there are billiard and pool tables, with two galleries seated with easy chairs, where those who desire can sit and enjoy the amusement. In the rear of these, all around, there are small rooms, where they play cards and other games. No gambling is tolerated.

In the basement there are arrangements and accommodations for all kinds of games to break the monotony of life. This all as free as water to the veteran, so long as he conducts himself in a gentlemanly manner.

The library building is a fine three-story brick structure. In it are two separate libraries, with 20,000 volumes of all kinds of literature. In fact you can find anything you want. Members are allowed one volume for two weeks, but they can procure a different one each day if they so desire. On the first floor of this building is the reading room, nicely fitted up and seated for those who may desire to sit down and inform themselves as to the daily news and doings of the world. On file you will find the leading daily newspapers, from Boston and all the large cities in the United States.

Around the walls of this room hang large pictures of illustrious persons, such as Washington, Lincoln, Garfield, Sherman, Sheridan, Hancock, etc.

The Home can boast of as fine an hotel as there is in the country. There is a canteen or beer hall, for soldiers only. It does a thriving business, especially about pension or extra duty pay days. This building and the pavilion attached to it will accommodate 500 persons. No liquors are sold outside of beer. Some days they sell as much as 50 barrels; but you see very few drunk men. It is patronized mostly by old Germans.

There is a Home store where we can purchase anything we need. There is a large steam laundry that washes 40,000 pieces weekly for the Home. There are shops of all kinds. All clothing is made up at this Home. Hundreds of soldiers' widows and children take sewing out to their homes, which aids them very much in making a living. There are probably 500 soldiers employed in the Home at some kind of labor, either working on the farm, in the various shops, the laundry, beautifying the grounds, etc. The members are of various nationalities, the Germans and Irish predominating. There are more captains, majors and colonels than you can shake a stick at. Also, old army surgeons, chaplains, mechanics, machinists, etc.

You will naturally ask who controls or governs this vast affair? The man who does so is entitled "governor," and he ranks as a colonel in the army. The present governor is J. B. Thomas, who was an M. D. in the 25th Illinois. He has been connected with this Home in some capacity from its organization up to the present time, and he has everything down to a fine point. His word is law. And of all these 6,000 veterans there is not over 10 per cent who are unruly. All a man has to do is to obey the rules governing the hours and he is all right.

You arise at 5 o'clock a. m. Each member has a good, comfortable bed with a ward robe standing by, in which to keep his clothing and other effects. He has to 8 o'clock a. m. to make up his bed, etc., then he can go his way until 8 p. m. He is then expected to be on hand. He has nothing to do, except once in three months he has to work one week as a waiter in the dining room, or pay some one else $2 to do it for him.

The Home has a wide hedge fence, with barbed wire intermingled, so that the members can get out only at the large gate. Passes are given by the governor from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. A member can get a pass twice a week, and if he behaves himself, in due time he gets a red card pass and he is at liberty to go out and in every day as often as he may choose. The governor holds court at 8 a. m. regularly, Sundays excepted. There is all the way from one to forty present. He is court, judge, jury and all. He holds, or is supposed to hold, justice in one hand, and his undivided will in the other. He knows all the old offenders so his mill grinds fast. A new member he may excuse, or give the limit for 30 days. That is he can have no pass. Others he may take their pass away from them indefinitely, until further orders. The worst offense is to jump the fence; in other words, to go out of camp without a pass and come in drunk, with a bottle of old red eye on your person; the penalty is 30 to 60 days on the dump, or, in plainer language, 30 to 60 days at hard labor. Some bad men are placed in the quarantine, something like your county jails and kept there for months.

But when a man gets utterly incorrigible, he has his soldier's buttons cut off his clothing and is taken to one of the gates and bounced out; then he can root hog or die. This is also the penalty for stealing; but most minor offenses are leniently dealt with.

This is a great point for picnics and excursions during the summer season. They come from nearby and from all parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. In a fine maple grove we hold camp meetings from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. The old ex-army chaplains are like an old horse when he hears the bugle. They hear the noise and get there and stir the boys up. The Salvation Army comes out from Dayton with drums, etc., and make things lively. We have a deer park, in which are more than 50 deer. Immediately in front of my barracks is the campus, of about 10 acres of beautiful lawn, kept nice. It is surrounded on two sides by wide cement walks and along the walks are iron seats. In the center of this campus, or lawn, is a handsome band stand. The Home band is composed of 36 instruments. It is said to be the best band in the state. During the summer season they discourse music from 3 to 5 o'clock every evening, Sunday excepted, and thousands of spectators, both soldiers and citizens, are usually present to enjoy the music. On Saturday there are hundreds of carriages from Dayton, and hundreds come out on the two electric street railway lines to enjoy the band concert.

Near the campus is the beautiful grotto, the wonderland for all. You can go down to it by winding stone steps, and find a terrace and a spring gushing out of a rocky ledge. The water makes a bubbling brook which, running a short way, goes over a cascade of several feet into a basin in which gold and silver fish are floating about. Nearby there is a spring of iron water, coming from the rocks. Now we are in the grotto. It is of a horse shoe or more nearly a triangular shape. One side of the angle is of nearly perpendicular, stony foundation; the other slopes away gradually. Everything is picturesque. There are three small lakes, one entering the other over a 20-foot fall. In the center of one of these is a fountain, which throws water 50 feet high. Crossing brooks, leading to the lakes, are rustic bridges and miniature islands, covered with flowers and fountains. Artificial cement basins of water, with beautiful water flowers, the lilly, of all kinds and colors, from every clime.

They make a picture so pretty that men and women pause to admire the sylvan scenery. Around the lakes there are shrubs and flowers, domestic and exotic, the Oleander, with bright flower; the Rose of Sharon; it is decked like a bride, in the draperies of fancy, and turn in any direction there are canopies of beauty. There are large mounds, laid out by expert landscape gardeners. These are covered with fine designs of home and tropical plants, shrubs and flowers and variegated grasses. Here you cannot sit under the vine and fig and sing "On Earth Peace, Good Will to Men," but you can sit under the vine and banana tree and contemplate the beauties of nature and think what beauties the Creator has given to man to feast his vision upon, and I often think how can any one be an agnostic. We leave the grotto and go up winding stone steps, and looking below, we see a great glass and iron conservatory, 40 or 50 feet in height. And now we are in Arcadia. There are great palms, plants and shrubs, from Europe, Asia, the West Indies, and even from the old Bible lands. They have the myrtle and red cedar. The sight is so fine that it is bewildering. Away above are hanging baskets of roses and flowers; the Empress of China vine rose and the vine plumatta, with most all of the prismatic colors in view. There are numerous hot houses at hand, where these flowers are propagated. Near the eastern gate is the Alligator cage and water basin, in which are five alligators, weighing from 20 up to 200 pounds, and from two to 30 years old. They are a curiosity to visitors. Outside the Dayton or eastern gate there is a "Midway" of a number of acres. It is located between two different lines of electric railways running from Dayton to the Home. There is a large merry-go-round, a scenic railway and hurdy gurdys.

About pension days sharpers reap a harvest, as many an old veteran falls by the wayside and gets in the hands of the Philistines.

After all, beautiful things and amusements become at times monotonous. I find that I have plenty of time to chew the cud of discontent. A man is not content merely because his stomach is filled and his body clothed. The man who is physically able to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow is the contented one. But in mind, I have joined the no worry club and solace myself by thinking if I have been unfortunate I have plenty of company. The board of managers and officers of this Home most emphatically impress it upon our minds that this is not a charitable institution, but a gift from the nation for what we did in our youth to sustain the union and the flag. The governor would give a member 90 days in jail if he called a comrade a pauper.

The presidential election is over, and you can rest assured that the veterans of this Home, almost to a man, voted as they shot; namely, for McKinley and Roosevelt, thank God. The people did not turn from McKinley and his patriotic and successful administration; so resolute in the maintenance of American principles and our country's best hopes for the future. Old Glory is the advance agent of civilization. Its stars and stripes strike the welcoming chord

There is cause for anxiety when a cough hangs on for a year and can't be shaken off. The quickest way to relieve that anxiety is to begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a cough remedy, but it is also a great deal more. In far advanced stages of disease, when hemorrhages have been frequent, and there have been emaciation and weakness, "Golden Medical Discovery" has produced a perfect cure. It increases the supply of the life fluid—blood. It cleanses the blood from impurities, and sends a current of rich, new blood to build up the weak places in the body with new life.

The "Discovery" is strictly a temperance medicine, non-alcoholic and non-narcotic.

"For one year I was troubled with a cough," writes Mr. H. E. Curtis, of Sumner, Bremer Co., Iowa. "As I continued to cough during the summer, my wife became anxious, and wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for medical advice. It seemed to us that we could not go to a better source for advice, and so it proved, as the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which was recommended, proved just the medicine to effect a cure. Dr. Pierce and his medicines are 'As good as wheat,' as the farmers used to say."

Bad taste in the mouth is removed by using Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Dayton, O., Nov. 15, 1900.

Dear Editor and Friends and Comrades—This Home is a mile square, on an eminence overlooking the Miami valley and the city of Dayton. The Home proper covers about 80 acres. It has many fine avenues, each one named after some northern state. They are nicely paved with fine, broad cement sidewalks, lined with splendid maple and elm shade trees. There are 36 barracks, mostly large three-story brick buildings, with all modern improvements, such as bathing rooms, hot and cold water, gas and heated up by hot air.

There are two large dining rooms with a seating capacity for 2,000 persons. Each man has his place. Everything goes to the minute by the sound of a gong, at 6 a. m., 12 m. and 5 p. m.

In one hour 4,000 have eaten, tables cleared, dishes washed, etc. There are about 6,000 members in the Home; usually about 600 on furlough and about 800 in the hospital.

The hospital is a magnificent structure, kept in the finest order. There are 10 annexes, where the cripples and convalescents stay. Every morning there is a military funeral, from one to five being taken to their last resting place.

The cemetery is nicely located on moderately sloping ground; 7,000 veterans having crossed to the great beyond and are sleeping their last sleep in this beautiful city of the dead. A fine monument marks this ground. It has a fifty-foot pedestal, with an eight-foot heroic statue of a soldier. On each corner of the marble base stands a life like marble statue of an infantryman, an artilleryman, a sailor and a cavalryman.

At the head of each grave there is a nice marble stone, giving name, company, regiment and date of death. The graves are even with the ground, covered with a fine grassy sod, which is kept like a lawn.

There is a fine Protestant and Catholic church, with great organs. Each has a chaplain and a city choir, and Memorial hall is a handsome building and has a seating capacity of 1,800. It is fitted up the same as a city opera or theatrical building, and during the winter season many entertainments are given by first-class theatrical troupes.

There is a fine club house, three stories high. On entering it, to the left is a reading and writing room, with all kinds of newspapers and magazines, envelopes, letter paper, pen and ink, free. Above are the halls of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Union Veteran Legion posts. On the opposite side there are billiard and pool tables, with two galleries seated with easy chairs, where those who desire can sit and and enjoy the amusement. In the rear of these, all around, there are small rooms, where they play cards and other games. No gambling is tolerated.

kinds of games to break the monotony of life. This all as free as water to the veteran, so long as he conducts himself in a gentlemanly manner.

The library building is a fine three-story brick structure. In it are two separate libraries, with 20,000 volumes of all kinds of literature. In fact you can find anything you want. Members are allowed one volume for two weeks, but they can procure a different one each day if they so desire. On the first floor of this building is the reading room, nicely fitted up and seated for those who may desire to sit down and inform themselves as to the daily news and doings of the world. On file you will find the leading daily newspapers, from Boston and all the large cities in the United States.

The Home can boast of as fine an hotel as there is in the country. There is a canteen or beer hall, for soldiers only. It does a thriving business, especially about pension or extra duty pay days. This building and the pavilion attached to it will accommodate 500 persons. No liquors are sold outside of beer. Some days they sell as much as 50 barrels; but you see very few drunk men. It is patronized mostly by old Germans.

There is a Home store where we can purchase anything we need. There is a large steam laundry that washes 40,000 pieces weekly for the Home. There are shops of all kinds. All clothing is made up at this Home. Hundreds of soldiers' widows and children take sewing out to their homes, which aids them very much in making a living. There are probably 500 soldiers employed in the Home at some kind of labor, either working on the farm, in the various shops, the laundry, beautifying the grounds, etc. The members are of various nationalities, the Germans and Irish predominating. There are more captains, majors and colonels than you can shake a stick at. Also, old army surgeons, chaplains, mechanics, machinists, etc.

You will naturally ask who controls or governs this vast affair? The man who does so is entitled "governor," and he ranks as a colonel in the army. The present governor is J. B. Thomas, who was an M. D. in the 25th Illinois. He has been connected with this Home in some capacity from its organization up to the present time, and he has everything down to a fine point. His word is law. And of all these 6,000 veterans there is not over 10 per cent who are unruly. All a man has to do is to obey the rules governing the hours and he is all right.

You arise at 5 o'clock a. m. Each member has a good, comfortable bed with a ward robe standing by, in which to keep his clothing and other effects. This is a great point for picnics and excursions during the summer season. They come from nearby and from all parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. In a fine maple grove we hold camp meetings from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. The old ex-army chaplains are like an old horse when he hears the bugle. They hear the noise and get there and stir the boys up. The Salvation Army comes out from Dayton with drums, etc., and make things lively. We have a deer park, in which are more than 50 deer. Immediately in front of my barracks is the campus, of about 10 acres of beautiful lawn, kept nice. It is surrounded on two sides by wide cement walks and along the walks are iron seats. In the center of this campus, or lawn, is a handsome band stand. The Home band is composed of 36 instruments. It is said to be the best band in the state. During the summer season they discourse music from 3 to 5 o'clock every evening, Sunday excepted, and thousands of spectators, both soldiers and citizens, are usually present to enjoy the music. On Saturday there are hundreds of carriages from Dayton, and hundreds come out on the two electric street railway lines to enjoy the band concert.

Near the campus is the beautiful grotto, the wonderland for all. You can go down to it by winding stone steps, and find a terrace and a spring gushing out of a rocky ledge. The water makes a bubbling brook which, running a short way, goes over a cascade of several feet into a basin in which gold and silver fish are floating about. Nearby there is a spring of iron water, coming from the rocks. Now we are in the grotto. It is of a horse shoe or more nearly a triangular shape. One side of the angle is of nearly perpendicular, stony foundation; the other slopes away gradually. Everything is picturesque. There are three small lakes, one entering the other over a 20-foot fall. In the center of one of these is a fountain, which throws water 50 feet high. Crossing brooks, leading to the lakes, are rustic bridges and miniature islands, covered with flowers and fountains. Artificial cement basins of water, with beautiful water flowers, the lily, of all kinds and colors, from every clime.

They make a picture so pretty that men and women pause to admire the sylvan scenery. Around the lakes there are shrubs and flowers, domestic and exotic, the Oleander, with bright flower; the Rose of Sharon; it is decked like a bride, in the draperies

of fancy, and turn in any direction there are canopies of beauty. There are large mounds, laid out by expert landscape gardeners. These are covered with fine designs of home and tropical plants, shrubs and flowers and variegated grasses. Here you cannot sit under the vine and fig and sing "On Earth Peace, Good Will to Men," but you can sit under the vine and banana tree and contemplate the beauties of nature and think what beauties the Creator has given to man to feast his vision upon, and I often think how can any one be an agnostic. We leave the grotto and go up winding stone steps, and looking below, we see a great glass and iron conservatory, 40 or 50 feet in height. And now we are in Arcadia. There are great palms, plants and shrubs, from Europe, Asia, the West Indies, and even from the old Bible lands. They have the myrtle and red cedar. The sight is so fine that it is bewildering. Away above are hanging baskets of roses and flowers; the Empress of China vine rose and the vine plumatta, with most all of the prismatic colors in view. There are numerous hot houses at hand, where these flowers are propagated. Near the eastern gate is the Alligator cage and water basin, in which are five alligators, weighing from 20 up to 200 pounds, and from two to 30 years old. They are a curiosity to visitors. Outside the Dayton or eastern gate there is a "Midway" of a number of acres. It is located between two different lines of electric railways running from Dayton to the Home. There is a large merry-go-round, a scenic railway and hurdy gurdys.

About pension days sharpers reap a harvest, as many an old veteran falls by the wayside and gets in the hands of the Philistines.

After all, beautiful things and amusements become at times monotonous. I find that I have plenty of time to chew the cud of discontent. A man is not content merely because his stomach is filled and his body clothed. The man who is physically able to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow is the contented one. But in mind, I have joined the no worry club and solace myself by thinking if I have been unfortunate I have plenty of company. The board of managers and officers of this Home most emphatically impress it upon our minds that this is not a charitable institution, but a gift from the nation for what we did in our youth to sustain the union and the flag. The governor would give a member 90 days in jail if he called a comrade a pauper.

The presidential election is over, and you can rest assured that the veterans of this Home, almost to a man, voted as they shot; namely, for McKinley and Roosevelt, thank God. The people did not turn from McKinley and his patriotic and successful administration; so resolute in the maintenance of American principles and our country's best hopes for the future. Old Glory is the advance agent of civilization. Its stars and stripes strike the welcoming chord

There is cause for anxiety when a cough hangs on for a year and can't be shaken off. The quickest way to relieve that anxiety is to begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a cough remedy, but it is also a great deal more. In far advanced stages of disease, when hemorrhages have been frequent, and there have been emaciation and weakness, "Golden Medical Discovery" has produced a perfect cure. It increases the supply of the life fluid—blood. It cleanses the blood from impurities, and sends a current of rich, new blood to build up the weak places in the body with new life.

The "Discovery" is strictly a temperance medicine, non-alcoholic and non-narcotic.

"For one year I was troubled with a cough," writes Mr. E. E. Curtis, of Sumner, Bremer Co., Iowa. "As I continued to cough during the summer, my wife became anxious, and wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for medical advice. It seemed to us that we could not go to a better source for advice, and so it proved, as the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which was recommended, proved just the medicine to effect a cure. Dr. Pierce and his medicines are 'As good as wheat,' as the farmers used to say."

VETERAN'S LETTER.

Read the letter sent us from the Dayton Military Home by Comrade Joseph McCoy. It is a readable article, and shows to a nicety how the old veterans are situated at Dayton. Comrade McCoy has sent us a handsome picture of the Home, and we have the same now on exhibition in our front office.

TENEMENT HOUSES.

East Liverpool is destined to expand. There is not the shadow of a doubt about this. And we must have small houses in order to accommodate the renters who are seeking to become residents in our hustling city. Capitalists and men who are seeking investments must and will awake to a realization of this fact, and the men who awaken first will reap a generous harvest, as they deserve to do.

TAXATION.

There are many sides to the question of taxation. The subject is a wide and varied one. It is one of the principal topics of conversation in Columbiana county at the present time. Treasure up in your mind the various stories you hear respecting the matter from time to time, and compare notes in the sweet after while. You will find much to interest you at all times in the study of economic questions, and you may possibly be the identical individual who will confer an inestimable blessing upon the world at large by solving the puzzle of how to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest mass.

THE LIVE ADVERTISER.

We have several of him in East Liverpool. He knows that he must keep good goods, make no misrepresentations, sell at close margins and make heavy sales add to his net income. He must not indulge in spasmodic and periodical advertising if he would score constant success. He must be a steady and persistent advertiser, always before the people, and must make his advertisements as bright and spicy as is consistent with the facts in the case. He must not deceive the public. He must have the goods and then let the public know that he has them and that he wishes to dispose of them, and that he will surely give the purchaser his money's worth every time that purchaser patronizes him. Such a business man and such an advertiser is always sure of success.

Will Sing a Solo.

Miss Cowan, of Pasadena, Cal., who is visiting friends in the East End, will sing a solo at both morning and evening services tomorrow at the Second Presbyterian church.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We respectfully call the attention of our agents, and the music-loving public in general, to the fact that certain parties are manufacturing and have placed upon the market a cheap Piano, bearing a name so similar to our own (with a slight difference in spelling) that the purchaser may be led to believe that he is purchasing a genuine "Sohmer Piano."

We deem it our duty to those who have been favorably impressed with the fine quality and high reputation of the "Sohmer Piano" to warn them against the possibility of an imposition by unscrupulous dealers or agents. Every genuine "Sohmer Piano" has the above Trade Mark stamped upon the sounding board.

WHY DO YOU SUFFER?

This Man is 74 Years of Age, And Has Experienced Wonderful Relief.

For years, right in East Liverpool, he has suffered incalculably in consequence of kidney troubles, until urged to test the skill of Dr. Larkins. He yielded to the solicitations of his friends, and with but few treatments, he has found wonderful relief and has been blessed with ease and comfort and refreshing slumber at night, something that has been denied him for the past 35 years.

VETERAN'S LETTER.

Read the letter sent us from the Dayton Military Home by Comrade Joseph McCoy. It is a readable article, and shows to a nicety how the old veterans are situated at Dayton. Comrade McCoy has sent us a handsome picture of the Home, and we have the same now on exhibition in our front office.

TENEMENT HOUSES.

East Liverpool is destined to expand. There is not the shadow of a doubt about this. And we must have small houses in order to accommodate the renters who are seeking to become residents in our hustling city. Capitalists and men who are seeking investments must and will awake to a realization of this fact, and the men who awaken first will reap a generous harvest, as they deserve to do.

TAXATION.

There are many sides to the question of taxation. The subject is a wide and varied one. It is one of the principal topics of conversation in Columbiana county at the present time. Treasure up in your mind the various stories you hear respecting the matter from time to time, and compare notes in the sweet after while. You will find much to interest you at all times in the study of economic questions, and you may possibly be the identical individual who will confer an inestimable blessing upon the world at large by solving the puzzle of how to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest mass.

THE LIVE ADVERTISER.

We have several of him in East Liverpool. He knows that he must keep good goods, make no misrepresentations, sell at close margins and make heavy sales add to his net income. He must not indulge in spasmodic and periodical advertising if he would score constant success. He must be a steady and persistent advertiser, always before the people, and must make his advertisements as bright and spicy as is consistent with the facts in the case. He must not deceive the public. He must have the goods and then let the public know that he has them and that he wishes to dispose of them, and that he will surely give the purchaser his money's worth every time that purchaser patronizes him. Such a business man and such an advertiser is always sure of success.

WHY DO YOU SUFFER?

This Man is 74 Years of Age, And Has Experienced Wonderful Relief.

For years, right in East Liverpool, he has suffered incalculably in consequence of kidney troubles, until urged to test the skill of Dr. Larkins. He yielded to the solicitations of his friends, and with but few treatments, he has found wonderful relief and has been blessed with ease and comfort and refreshing slumber at night, something that has been denied him for the past 35 years.

In Two Weeks.

Beaver Falls Tribune.

William George, of East Palestine, who proposed to build a pottery in this place several months ago, passed through town yesterday on his way to Canonsburg, where he has about completed the construction of a $60,000 plant, which he says will be in operation within two weeks.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We respectfully call the attention of our agents, and the music-loving public in general, to the fact that certain parties are manufacturing and having placed upon the market a cheap piano, bearing a name so similar to our own (with a slight difference in spelling) that the purchaser may be led to believe that he is purchasing a genuine "Sohmer Piano."

We deem it our duty to those who have been favorably impressed with the fine quality and high reputation of the "Sohmer Piano" to warn them against the possibility of an imposition by unscrupulous dealers or agents. Every genuine "Sohmer Piano" has the above Trade Mark stamped upon the sounding board.

FINAL REPORT TO BE MADE MONDAY

The Appraisers Have Completed
Their Work at the Union
Co-operative Pottery.

TOTALS WERE NOT MADE UP

The Value Placed on the Concern
Is a Very Conservative

THE PLANT IS STILL RUNNING

The affairs of the Union pottery of this city are about to be wound up
and Receiver Cartwright will make his
final report to the court next week:

The appraisers have finished their
work, but it has not yet been footed
up, and it is not known just what it will amount to. It is known, however, that it is a very conservative appraisal and the value of the plant
will not be placed at an out of the way
figure.

At present the plant is working on
a few orders and sorting up stock.

There is at present no purchaser for
the pottery, and it is expected when
it goes to sale some of the present
members will buy it.

Coaling Stage.

There are many business men in East Liverpool who are anxiously looking and hoping for a rise in the waters of the Ohio river. We need a coaling stage very badly. And there are other industries aside from the
coal trade which would be benefited
materially by a boating stage of water.
No wonder that men will halt you on
our thoroughfares and make inquiry:
"Say, old man, do you think there is
any prospect of a good river in consequence of this rain?"

Chautauqua Circle.

will meet on Friday night next at

SOUTH SIDE.

A LIGHT.

Jim Johnson, a Colored Man, Was Almost Beaten to Death in Chester.

There was a large sized row in the upper part of town last night, in which
Jim Johnson, a colored man, was almost beaten to death.

Brown & Coates, came to East Liverpool early in the evening and when
they returned found that the shanty
in which they had been living, and
which was owned by Oscar Frank,
had been torn down.

They went to the shanty of Johnson and asked for permission to stay
all night. They were refused and told to go about their business. This angered the men so they forced the door
and beat Johnson into insensibility.

No arrests were made, although the authorities are investigating the affair.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

an organization will be formed by the election of officers.

They will also extend a call for a pastor. Rev. W. B. Gillis will undoubtedly be their first choice, as the people of that section like the young man
very much, and he has signified his willingness to take the pastorate if offered to him.

Lost His False Teeth.

Henry Dolby, who drives team for Contractor Severs, was so unfortunate yesterday as to lose his false
teeth while hauling gravel. He did not discover his loss for about an half
hour, and when he did miss them he hastened to the gravel pit, where the entire force of men suspended operations while a general search was instituted. The teeth were finally located
and returned to the owner.

Pleasant Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was
given last evening at the residence
of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner, Pennsylvania avenue, in honor of the 25th
birthday of Samuel Larkins.

When Mr. Larkins arrived home at 6 o'clock last evening he found 12 of
his gentlemen friends seated at the table awaiting him. It was a complete surprise, and a very enjoyable
evening was spent.

After supper Rev. C. G. Jordan, in
a pleasant little speech, presented
Mr. Larkins with a handsome umbrella.

Another surprise was in store for
the young man, for about 9 o'clock
a large number of the members of the four F's society swooped down
upon him, and this time the surprise
was even more complete than on the previous occasion, as he was entirely unprepared for it.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed
by all present. Refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour.

Take prescriptions to the E. E.
Pharmacy.

Stole His Chicken.

John Forbes owns a very fine Bantam rooster and yesterday morning it
was stolen.

Mr. Forbes did a little detective
work and was not long in fixing the blame upon two small boys in that vicinity.

He informed them that in case the rooster was not returned to him by 6 o'clock last night he would cause
their arrest. Mr. Forbes posted Officer Hamilton to be in readiness, but it was not necessary, as the boys returned the property.

Trusses at the E. E. Pharmacy.

Preparatory Services.
This evening at the Second United
Presbyterian church, Rev. J. R. Greene

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, <sup>Corner Sixth</sup>
and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home
from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties
we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 76 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell
you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, you find such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any properties to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work executed, such as acknowledgements, writing of wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business.
No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity.
We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer in-quirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner.
Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate
and valuable service.

FINAL REPORT TO BE MADE MONDAY

The Appraisers Have Completed Their Work at the Union Co-operative Pottery.

TOTALS WERE NOT MADE UP

The Value Placed on the Concern Is a Very Conservative One.

THE PLANT IS STILL RUNNING

The affairs of the Union pottery of this city are about to be wound up and Receiver Cartwright will make his final report to the court next week.

The appraisers have finished their work, but it has not yet been footed up, and it is not known just what it will amount to. It is known, however, that it is a very conservative appraisal and the value of the plant will not be placed at an out of the way figure.

At present the plant is working on a few orders and sorting up stock.

There is at present no purchaser for the pottery, and it is expected when it goes to sale some of the present members will buy it.

DID YOU RECEIVE ONE?

Did You Get a Postal Card Addressed to You, Respecting the A. M. E. Church?

If you did, and if no one has yet called upon you to collect the dollar which you are anxious to give as an investment in a good cause, will you kindly enclose the amount in an envelope and address it as follows:

Coaling Stage.

There are many business men in East Liverpool who are anxiously looking and hoping for a rise in the waters of the Ohio river. We need a coaling stage very badly. And there are other industries aside from the coal trade which would be benefited materially by a boating stage of water. No wonder that men will halt you on our thoroughfares and make inquiry: "Say, old man, do you think there is any prospect of a good river in consequence of this rain?"

Chautauqua Circle.

The Chautauqua Circle met last night at the residence of Dr. Bailey. The members report an exceedingly enjoyable time. Miss E. P. Hazlett gave a character study on Marat, winning warm commendation. The circle will meet on Friday night next at the residence of Dr. Hobbs, Fifth street. They will take up some selections respecting Russia and her treatment of Finland, aside from the regular lesson.

A LIGHT.

Jim Johnson, a Colored Man, Was Almost Beaten to Death in Chester.

There was a large sized row in the upper part of town last night, in which Jim Johnson, a colored man, was almost beaten to death.

Four colored men, employed by Brown & Coates, came to East Liverpool early in the evening and when they returned found that the shanty in which they had been living, and which was owned by Oscar Frank, had been torn down.

They went to the shanty of Johnson and asked for permission to stay all night. They were refused and told to go about their business. This angered the men so they forced the door and beat Johnson into insensibility.

No arrests were made, although the authorities are investigating the affair.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

Chester U. P. Church Congregation Will Meet And Elect Officers.

The members of the United Presbyterian church who go to make up the Chester congregation will hold a meeting on Tuesday evening, at which time an organization will be formed by the election of officers.

Lost His False Teeth.

Henry Dolby, who drives team for Contractor Severs, was so unfortunate yesterday as to lose his false teeth while hauling gravel. He did not discover his loss for about an hour, and when he did miss them he hastened to the gravel pit, where the entire force of men suspended operations while a general search was instituted. The teeth were finally located and returned to the owner.

A very pleasant surprise party was given last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner, Pennsylvania avenue, in honor of the 25th birthday of Samuel Larkins.

When Mr. Larkins arrived home at 6 o'clock last evening he found 12 of his gentlemen friends seated at the table awaiting him. It was a complete surprise, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

After supper Rev. C. G. Jordan, in a pleasant little speech, presented Mr. Larkins with a handsome umbrella.

Another surprise was in store for the young man, for about 9 o'clock a large number of the members of the four F's society swooped down upon him, and this time the surprise was even more complete than on the previous occasion, as he was entirely unprepared for it.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 75 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, you find such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any properties to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work executed, such as acknowledgements, writing of wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

MOB CREMATES A FIEND

Negro Burned at the Scene of His Crime.

VICTIM'S FATHER FIRED PYRE.

The Black Boy Shrieked in Agony. Begged to Be Shot—Fell Almost Out of Fire and Another Was Built Over His Prostrate Body.

Limon, Col., Nov. 17.—Chained to a railroad rail set firmly in the ground, on the exact spot where his fiendish crime was committed, Preston Porter, Jr., or, as he was familiarly known, John Porter, paid a terrible penalty for the assault and murder of 11-year-old Louise Frost. The father of the murdered girl touched the match to the fuel which had been piled around the negro, and in about 20 minutes a last convulsive shudder told that life was extinct.

The executioners, who numbered about 300 citizens of Lincoln county, had not the least semblance of the ordinary mob.

Preston Porter did not seem to realize the awful punishment that he was destined to undergo. As he had exhibited indifference to the enormity of his crime, so he seemed to lack all understanding of its terrible consequences. For more than an hour, while preparations for his execution were in progress, he stood mute and sullen among the avengers. When everything was ready he walked to the stake with a firm step, pausing as he reached the circle of broken boards, to kneel in prayer. He was allowed to take his time. He arose and placed his back to the iron stake and half a dozen men wound chains about his body and limbs. Kerosene oil was applied to the wood and after a brief pause Richard W. Frost, the father of little Louise Frost, whose cruelly mutilated body was found one week ago on that very spot, applied the match. For a moment but a little flickering flame arose. Then the oil blazed up, sparks flew into the air and the wood began to crackle. Almost instantly the negro's trousers caught fire. Even though the flesh must have been scorched, he did not utter a sound. The flames crept slowly upward on his clothing, the sparks flew up in a cloud of pale smoke. Porter turned his head and a frightful expression changed his face. With a sudden convulsive tugging he stretched his head as far from the rapidly increasing flames as possible and uttered a cry of pain. "Oh, my God, let me go, men. I've got something more to tell you. Please let me go. Oh, my God, my God." In terrible shrieks these words, the first he had uttered aloud, came from the negro. There was terrible tugging at the chains, a succession of awful groans and screams. The negro's agony was at last breaking down his sullen composure. Not an oath escaped him, but he begged and pleaded to be shot. Suddenly the rope holding his hands burned through. Then arms, head and shoulders slipped through the chains. For an instant the body stood erect, the arms were raised in supplication while burning pieces of cloths dropped from them. The body then fell away from the fire, the head lower than the feet, still fastened to the rail. This was not expected, and for a few minutes those stolid men were disconcerted. They feared that the only remaining chain would give way. If this had occurred the partly burned human being might have dashed among them in his blazing garments. And not many would have cared to capture him again. But the chain held fast. The body was then in such a position that only the legs were in the fire. The cries of the wretch were redoubled and he again begged to be shot. Some wanted to throw him over into the fire, others tried to dash oil upon him. Boards were carried and a large pile made over the prostrate body. They soon were ignited and the terrible heat and lack of air quickly rendered the victim unconscious, bringing death a few moments later.

After the fire had burned low they told each other good night and they left the scene, apparently for their homes. They did not stop to discuss the affair.

When the train bearing the negro in custody of Sheriff Freeman and his deputies arrived in Limon from Denver the cars were crowded with newspaper reporters and people who were curious to see the negro executed. R. W. Frost, the murdered girl's father, was one of the passengers. When the train stopped 16 men, who had been selected by the vigilance committee, entered the train and demanded the prisoner from the sheriff. The officer protested in the name of the law and asked the men to allow him to take his prisoner to the county jail at Hugo, but his protests were disregarded. One man carried a rope, of which had been formed a hangman's noose. This was slipped over the negro's neck. It was at first announced that the negro was to be executed by hanging. Many, including the father of the negro's victim, protested that such a death would be too easy, and it was finally decided to leave the method of death to the outraged father. He decided upon burning at the stake. The train was then allowed to proceed, and at Lake Station, about three miles from Limon, the party left the train and began preparations for the deed of vengeance. Suggestions of mutilation before burning were made, but Mr. Frost declared against them.

The negro had, since his confession, been devoting much time to the perusal of a Bible given him by the Denver jailer. Even while waiting for his execution he sat by a bonfire reading from the gospel of St. Luke. Just before he was tied to the stake, upon a request for souvenirs, the boy tore the leaves of the Bible and distributed them among his executioners.

ARMY NEEDS REORGANIZING

Miles So Declares—Praises Liscum and Reilly, Killed in China—Commends Work of U. S. Troops.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Lieutenant General Miles, commanding the army, in his report, points out the need for a general reorganization of the military service. He says in part:

"The need for an efficient and well-organized land force for an indefinite period in the future is most obvious, and the organization of such a force cannot be wisely avoided. There are weighty reasons why such a service as is now demanded of the army cannot be performed by a temporary organization."

General Miles points out that the practical limitation of service of the volunteers to one year in the Philippines makes this a most expensive practice, necessitating double transfer of troops and adding enormously to the cost of the organization. He also points out the need of a reserve force for the relief of the soldiers who serve in the tropics, declaring the regiments that have so far served more than two years at unhealthy stations should be relieved. General Miles renews his recommendation that the permanent force of the army should be one man for each 1,000 of population of the United States. He submits a draft of a bill embodying his views and recommendations on army reorganization.

The report shows that the urgent demands for troops for remote stations has reduced the number in the United States to a much smaller force than has been sustained at any time during the past 30 years. In fact, says General Miles, the force has been so much reduced that at the present time there are not one-fourth enough troops properly to care for and man the fortifications which have been erected on the sea coast at an expenditure of nearly $55,000,000. In addition to the military deficiency, the present home force is not sufficient to occupy the interior garrisons properly, or to protect life and property on the western frontier.

Touching upon the Chinese campaign, General Miles compares the American contingent in the Pekin expedition with those of other nationalities, and praises the Americans.

Great reverence is said to be due the memory of Colonel E. S. Liscum, who fell while leading his troops with undaunted courage and marked ability. The services of Major Jesse M. Lee, of the Ninth Infantry, who took command of American forces at Tien Tsin after Colonel Liscum's death, are commended. Captain Reilly is also named as an ideal soldier, without fear and without reproach, who, by his death at Pekin, again demonstrated the zeal and courage of the American soldier.

General Miles claims that the fortifications board has developed a high explosive, superior in effectiveness to all known safe military explosives. Important action has also been taken by the same board in the development of artillery. General Miles does not think it wise to longer delay the practical application of self-moving vehicles to the military service.

PUT CHECK ON VICE.

Bishop Potter Urges Van Wyck to Act.

COMPLAINS OF POLICE CONIVANCE

Innocent of East Side New York in Constant Danger—Mayor Promises to Comply—Warns Subordinates to Act—Orders Investigation of Insults to Clergymen.

New York, Nov. 17.—Bishop Henry C. Potter, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of New York, sent a letter to Mayor Van Wyck in reference to vice in this city, and especially on the East Side.

At the present writing there are three movements directed against vice as it is displayed on the great East Side. These are a quietly conducted investigation by District Attorney Gardiner in connection with Anthony Comstock's Society for the Suppression of Vice; Tammany's appointment of a committee to investigate present conditions and Bishop Potter's crusade.

Bishop Potter in his letter to Mayor Van Wyck first calls attention to the work that is being done at the cathedral, 130 Stanton street, in endeavoring to improve the condition of the poor of the East Side tenement district, in which it is located, and says it has been recognized as an important factor in promoting the virtue and good order of the community in which it ministers. He continued in part:

"In view of these facts it would seem that it has a valid claim upon the sympathy, co-operation, and at least courteous consideration of those who officially represent our city government and the guardianship of decency and good morals."

Further along Bishop Potter told how, when two clergymen called at the police station of the precinct to complain of the notorious condition of affairs, one of them was told by the police captain that he lied; and that when, disheartened by such an experience, the clergyman carried his complaint to a higher authority in the police, he was met with insolent derision.

The bishop further along in his letter said in part:

"I am not, I beg to say, unmindful of the fact that the existence of vice in a great city is, practically, an inevitable condition of the life of such a community. I am not demanding that vice shall be 'stamped out' by the police or any other civil authority. This is a task which would demand for its achievement a race of angels and not of men. But I approach you, sir, to protest with all my power against a condition of things in which vice is not only tolerated, but shielded and encouraged by those whose sworn duty it is to suppress and discourage it, and, in the name of unsullied youth and innocence, of young girls and their mothers, who, though living under conditions often of privation and the hard struggle for livelihood, have in them every instinct of virtue and purity that are the ornaments of any so-called gentleman in the land; and before God and in the face of the citizens of New York I protest, as my people have charged me to do, against the habitual insult, the persistent menace, the unutterably defiling contacts, to which, day by day, because of the base complexity of the police of New York with the lowest forms of vice and crime, they are subject."

"And, in the name of these little ones, these weak and defenseless ones, Christian and Hebrew alike, of many races and tongues, but of homes in which God is feared and his law revered, and virtue and decency honored and exemplified, I call upon you, sir, to save these people, who are in a very real way committed to your charge, from a living hell, defiling, deadly damning, to which the criminal supineness of the constituted authorities set for the defense of decency and good order, threatens to doom them."

Bishop Potter, in conclusion, says he has no methods to suggest for the bettering of the conditions; these are in the hands of the mayor. He says his letter is in accordance with instructions laid on him by the convention of the Episcopal church of this diocese and he leaves the matter in the mayor's hands.

Mayor Van Wyck at once replied to the bishop by letter, in which he said he had passed the bishop's communication to the district attorney, and then says:

"I wish here to assure you that I will exert every power which the law has given to right the wrongs and to do away with the conditions of which you complain and to secure a hearty and efficient co-operation by the police department with all who are working to do away with the public violations of law and decency.

"I stand ready at all times to assist and co-operate with you in this matter."

Mayor Van Wyck's letter to the district attorney requests him to co-operate with Bishop Potter and the police department in the movement. In a letter to the board of police commissioners the mayor encloses a copy of the bishop's letter and directs the commissioners to at once conduct a searching investigation into the conduct of the two police officials whom the bishop says insulted the clergymen. He also directs them to at once do away with the conditions complained of on the East Side. The mayor's closing paragraph is:

"I wish it distinctly understood that to this end I shall use to the utmost limit all the power vested in me, and that I shall hold to personal responsibility those who fail to exert themselves in like manner."

GRIGGS RESIGNS.

Expects to Leave the Cabinet March 4, Next.

Washington, Nov. 17.—At a cabinet meeting Attorney General Griggs informed the president and his colleagues that after mature deliberation he had concluded that it would be impossible for him to remain a member of the cabinet for the next four years.

The resignation of the attorney general will not take effect until March 4 next, and it is thought at present that all the other members, with the possible exception of the secretary of war, will retain their present positions.

OPPOSED BY THE PRESIDENT.

He Don't Favor Cutting Down South's Congressional Representation.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The opinion is growing among public men who are in the confidence of the president that he will oppose any movement looking to a reduction of the congressional representation of the southern states, on account of charges of the disfranchisement of colored voters. The president is said to be opposed to reviving ill feeling, which he thinks would be the result if a bill thus touching the south's suffrage.

On account of the president's attitude there is a growing opinion that such legislation will not be pressed by party leaders in congress. In this connection it is suggested that any action taken with reference to the suffrage of the south in advance of the adoption of a definite policy in the Philippines might throw some embarrassment in the way of the proper disposition of the citizenship rights of the Filipinos, and, moreover, it is felt that the government has as much as it can deal with now without getting into a contention over domestic affairs.

PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO ATTEND.

MOB CREMATES A FIEND

Negro Burned at the Scene of His Crime.

VICTIM'S FATHER FIRED PYRE.

The Black Boy Shrieked in Agony. Begged to Be Shot—Fell Almost Out of Fire and Another Was Built Over His Prostrate Body.

Limon, Col., Nov. 17.—Chained to a railroad rail set firmly in the ground, on the exact spot where his fiendish crime was committed, Preston Porter, Jr., or, as he was familiarly known, John Porter, paid a terrible penalty for the assault and murder of 11-year-old Louise Frost. The father of the murdered girl touched the match to the fuel which had been piled around the negro, and in about 20 minutes a last convulsive shudder told that life was extinct.

The executioners, who numbered about 300 citizens of Lincoln county, had not the least semblance of the ordinary mob.

Preston Porter did not seem to realize the awful punishment that he was destined to undergo. As he had exhibited indifference to the enormity of his crime, so he seemed to lack all understanding of its terrible consequences. For more than an hour, while preparations for his execution were in progress, he stood mute and sullen among the avengers. When everything was ready he walked to the stake with a firm step, pausing as he reached the circle of broken boards, to kneel in prayer. He was allowed to take his time. He arose and placed his back to the iron stake and half a dozen men wound chains about his body and limbs. Kerosene oil was applied to the wood and after a brief pause Richard W. Frost, the father of little Louise Frost, whose cruelly mutilated body was found one week ago on that very spot, applied the match. For a moment but a little flickering flame arose. Then the oil blazed up, sparks flew into the air and the wood began to crackle. Almost instantly the negro's trousers caught fire. Even though the flesh must have been scorched, he did not utter a sound. The flames crept slowly upward on his clothing, the sparks flew up in a cloud of pale smoke. Porter turned his head and a frightful expression changed his face. With a sudden convulsive tugging he stretched his head as far from the rapidly increasing flames as possible and uttered a cry of pain. "Oh, my God, let me go, men. I've got something more to tell you. Please let me go. Oh, my God, my God." In terrible shrieks these words, the first he had uttered aloud, came from the negro. There was terrible tugging at the chains, a succession of awful groans and screams. The negro's agony was at last breaking down his sullen composure. Not an oath escaped him, but he begged and pleaded to be shot. Suddenly the rope holding his hands burned through. Then arms, head and shoulders slipped through the chains. For an instant the body stood erect, the arms were raised in supplication while burning pieces of cloth dropped from them. The body then fell away from the fire, the head lower than the feet, still fastened to the rail. This was not expected, and for a few minutes those stolid men were disconcerted. They feared that the only remaining chain would give way. If this had occurred the partly burned human being might have dashed among them in his blazing garments. And not many would have cared to capture him again. But the chain held fast. The body was then in such a position that only the legs were in the fire. The cries of the wretch were redoubled and he again begged to be shot. Some wanted to throw him over into the fire, others tried to dash oil upon him. Boards were carried and a large pile made over the prostrate body. They soon were ignited and the terrible heat and lack of air quickly rendered the victim unconscious, bringing death a few moments later.

After the fire had burned low they told each other good night and they left the scene, apparently for their homes. They did not stop to discuss the affair.

When the train bearing the negro in custody of Sheriff Freeman and his deputies arrived in Limon from Denver the cars were crowded with newspaper reporters and people who were curious to see the negro executed. R. W. Frost, the murdered girl's father, was one of the passengers. When the train stopped 16 men, who had been selected by the vigilance committee, entered the train and demanded the prisoner from the sheriff. The officer protested in the name of the law and asked the men to allow him to take him prisoner to the county jail at Hugo, but his protests were disregarded. One man carried a rope, of which had been formed a hangman's noose. This was slipped over the negro's neck. It was at first announced that the negro was to be executed by hanging. Many, including the father of the negro's victim, protested that such a death would be too easy, and it was finally decided to leave the method of death to the outraged father. He decided upon burning at the stake. The train was then allowed to proceed, and at Lake Station, about three miles from Limon, the party left the train and began preparations for the deed of vengeance. Suggestions of mutilation before burning were made, but Mr. Frost declared against them.

The negro had, since his confession, been devoting much time to the perusal of a Bible given him by the Denver jailer. Even while waiting for his execution he sat by a bonfire reading from the gospel of St. Luke. Just before he was tied to the stake, upon a request for souvenirs, the boy tore the leaves of the Bible and distributed them among his executioners.

General Miles points out that the practical limitation of service of the volunteers to one year in the Philippines makes this a most expensive practice, necessitating double transfer of troops and adding enormously to the cost of the organization. ## ARMY NEEDS REORGANIZING

Washington, Nov. 17.—Lieutenant General Miles, commanding the army, in his report, points out the need for a general reorganization of the military service. He says in part:

"The need for an efficient and well-organized land force for an indefinite period in the future is most obvious, and the organization of such a force cannot be wisely avoided. There are weighty reasons why such a service as is now demanded of the army cannot be performed by a temporary organization."

General Miles points out that the practical limitation of service of the volunteers to one year in the Philippines makes this a most expensive practice, necessitating double transfer of troops and adding enormously to the cost of the organization. Lee, of the Ninth Infantry, who took command of American forces at Tien Tsin after Colonel Liscum's death, are commended. Captain Reilly is also named as an ideal soldier, without fear and without reproach, who, by his death at Pekin, again demonstrated the zeal and courage of the American soldier.

General Miles claims that the fortifications board has developed a high explosive, superior in effectiveness to all known safe military explosives. Important action has also been taken by the same board in the development of artillery. General Miles does not think it wise to longer delay the practical application of self-moving vehicles to the military service.

PUT CHECK ON VICE.

COMPLAINS OF POLICE CONNIVANCE

New York, Nov. 17.—Bishop Henry C. Potter, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of New York, sent a letter to Mayor Van Wyck in reference to vice in this city, and especially on the East Side.

At the present writing there are three movements directed against vice as it is displayed on the great East Side. These are a quietly conducted investigation by District Attorney Gardiner in connection with Anthony Comstock's Society for the Suppression of Vice; Tammany's appointment of a committee to investigate present conditions and Bishop Potter's crusade.

Bishop Potter in his letter to Mayor Van Wyck first calls attention to the work that is being done at the cathedral, 130 Stanton street, in endeavoring to improve the condition of the poor of the East Side tenement district, in which it is located, and says it has been recognized as an important factor in promoting the virtue and good order of the community in which it ministers. He continued in part:

"In view of these facts it would seem that it has a valid claim upon the sympathy, co-operation, and at least courteous consideration of those who officially represent our city government and the guardianship of decency and good morals."

Further along Bishop Potter told how, when two clergymen called at the police station of the precinct to complain of the notorious condition of affairs, one of them was told by the police captain that he lied; and that when, disheartened by such an experience, the clergyman carried his complaint to a higher authority in the police, he was met with insolent derision.

The bishop further along in his letter said in part:

"I am not, I beg to say, unmindful of the fact that the existence of vice in a great city is, practically, an inevitable condition of the life of such a community. I am not demanding that vice shall be 'stamped out' by the police or any other civil authority. This is a task which would demand for its achievement a race of angels and not of men. But I approach you, sir, to protest with all my power against a condition of things in which vice is not only tolerated, but shielded and encouraged by those whose sworn duty it is to suppress and discourage it, and, in the name of unsullied youth and innocence, of young girls and their mothers, who, though living under conditions often of privation and the hard struggle for livelihood, have in them every instinct of virtue and purity that are the ornaments of any so-called gentleness in the land; and before God and in the face of the citizens of New York I protest, as my people have charged me to do, against the habitual insult, the persistent menace, the unutterably defiling contacts, to which, day by day, because of the base complicity of the police of New York with the lowest forms of vice and crime, they are subject."

"And, in the name of these little ones, these weak and defenseless ones, Christian and Hebrew alike, of many races and tongues, but of homes in which God is feared and his law revered, and virtue and decency honored and exemplified, I call upon you, sir, to save these people, who are in a very real way committed to your charge, from a living hell, defiling, deadly damning, to which the criminal supineness of the constituted authorities set for the defense of decency and good order, threatens to doom them."

Bishop Potter, in conclusion, says he has no methods to suggest for the bettering of the conditions; these are in the hands of the mayor. He says his letter is in accordance with instructions laid on him by the convention of the Episcopal church of this diocese and he leaves the matter in the mayor's hands.

Mayor Van Wyck at once replied to the bishop by letter, in which he said he had passed the bishop's communication to the district attorney, and then says:

"I wish here to assure you that I will exert every power which the law has given to right the wrongs and to do away with the conditions of which you complain and to secure a hearty and efficient co-operation by the police department with all who are working to do away with the public viola-

Mayor Van Wyck's letter to the district attorney requests him to co-operate with Bishop Potter and the police department in the movement. In a letter to the board of police commissioners the mayor encloses a copy of the bishop's letter and directs the commissioners to at once conduct a searching investigation into the conduct of the two police officials whom the bishop says insulted the clergymen. He also directs them to at once do away with the conditions complained of on the East Side. The mayor's closing paragraph is:

"I wish it distinctly understood that to this end I shall use to the utmost limit all the power vested in me, and that I shall hold to personal responsibility those who fail to exert themselves in like manner."

GRIGGS RESIGNS.

Expects to Leave the Cabinet March 4, Next.

Washington, Nov. 17.—At a cabinet meeting Attorney General Griggs informed the president and his colleagues that after mature deliberation he had concluded that it would be impossible for him to remain a member of the cabinet for the next four years.

The resignation of the attorney general will not take effect until March 4 next, and it is thought at present that all the other members, with the possible exception of the secretary of war, will retain their present positions.

OPPOSED BY THE PRESIDENT.

He Don't Favor Cutting Down South's Congressional Representation.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The opinion is growing among public men who are in the confidence of the president that he will oppose any movement looking to a reduction of the congressional representation of the southern states, on account of charges of the disfranchisement of colored voters. The president is said to be opposed to reviving ill feeling, which he thinks would be the result if a bill thus touching the south's suffrage.

On account of the president's attitude there is a growing opinion that such legislation will not be pressed by party leaders in congress. In this connection it is suggested that any action taken with reference to the suffrage of the south in advance of the adoption of a definite policy in the Philippines might throw some embarrassment in the way of the proper disposition of the citizenship rights of the Filipinos, and, moreover, it is felt that the government has as much as it can deal with now without getting into a contention over domestic affairs.

PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO ATTEND.

Other Prominent People May Be at a Philadelphia Club Banquet.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Following the recent announcement that President McKinley will attend the celebration of Founders' day at the Union League, Philadelphia's famous Republican club, an additional announcement was made that Vice President-elect Roosevelt will also attend, along with Secretary of War Root, Secretary of State Hay, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, Attorney General Griggs and Postmaster General Smith.

Prominent guests from all parts of the country will be present at the celebration, which will be held on Nov. 24.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

JOSEPH J. GILL.

Joseph J. Gill of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Ohio, was born in Barnesville, Belmont county, Ohio, Sept. 21, 1846. His parents were Samuel and Deborah Gill, members of the Society of Friends at Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson county, Ohio. He received an academic education, was graduated from the law school of the University of Michigan, and was admitted to the Jefferson county bar in 1868.

A year or two afterward he came within a very few votes of receiving the nomination by popular vote of the Republican party for prosecuting attorney. In 1873 he organized the National Exchange bank of Steubenville, Ohio, and became its cashier. In 1874 he engaged in glass manufacturing, which was the beginning of the business of the firm of Gill Brothers & Company of Steubenville, Ohio, owners of the largest factory, exclusively producing lamp chimneys, in the world.

While giving his attention to the glass business Mr. Gill invented the "Gill glass furnace," of which many were erected in different parts of this country and in Canada. In 1889 he became associated with Cleveland and New York capitalists, as successors to the late William Windom, the ex-secretary of the treasury; Senator Dorsey and others, in an extensive iron mining enterprise in Michigan, and of which he became the company's managing director. He is the owner of the Steubenville Daily and Weekly Herald-Star, the oldest established newspaper of Ohio, and which has been published continuously since March, 1806. Mr. Gill's participation in politics dates from 1872, when he took an active interest in the Republican congressional convention at Bellaire, Ohio, which resulted in the nomination of Lorenzo Danford. Some years later he conducted the campaign of J. T. Updegraff in his successful candidacy for the congressional nomination. In 1894 Mr. Gill was for the first time a candidate for congress, and received the highest number of votes during the deadlock in that convention, but after a careful consideration of his chances withdrew, when his delegates cast their votes for Lorenzo Danford, who was thereupon nominated. He was a delegate to the Republican national convention at St. Louis in 1896, which nominated William McKinley for president.

After the death of Lorenzo Danford in June, 1899, Mr. Gill became a candidate for congress to fill the unexpired term. His candidacy was endorsed by all the labor organizations of the locality, whose members recognized in him their friend and benefactor, and voted for him without regard to party. At the election he received the largest majority ever given a candidate for congress in his district, and in his own county the largest ever given a candidate for any office. Although he had never held office before he had always taken a keen interest in public affairs and in the success of the Republican party.

His father inherited slaves from kindred in Virginia, but was so imbued with the spirit of liberty that he at once gave to them their freedom. The son was imparted the same spirit, and with him it has always been a sacred principle that "the laborer is worthy of his hire." He has been one of the largest employers of labor in his district, and there has never been a reduction of wages in his factory.

Mr. Gill is of Quaker descent; was reared to manhood in Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, a prominent station on the "Underground Railroad," where Benjamin Lundy published his "Genius of Liberty," the pioneer anti-slavery paper of the country, and where public affairs were always matters of great interest. Such environments in early life naturally moulded his thoughts and made him an ardent Republican partisan.

His career in congress, however, will be that of a representative of the business and commercial interests, rather than that of a politician, and to his task he brings untiring energy, keen insight and a clear and patriotic conception of his duties as a representative of the people.

He was elected to the Fifty-sixth congress Nov. 7, 1899, as a Republican, from the Sixteenth district, Jefferson, Belmont, Carroll, Harrison and Monroe counties, and was the last representative in congress from Ohio in the nineteenth century, as Jeremiah Morrow was the first.

ROBERT B. GORDON.

Robert B. Gordon of St. Mary's, Auglaize county, was born on a farm near that city Aug. 6, 1855, and was educated in the St. Mary's public schools, graduating from the high school in 1874. In 1886 he was appointed postmaster of St. Mary's by President Cleveland, and in 1889 was elected auditor of Auglaize county, and re-elected in 1891. He was a delegate to the national Democratic convention in 1896. He is the proprietor of an extensive flouring mill at St. Mary's, and is also engaged in dealing in farm implements and agricultural machinery and is an extensive real estate owner.

He was elected to the Fifty-sixth congress in 1898, as a Democrat, from the Fourth district, composed of Auglaize, Allen, Darke, Mercer and Shelby counties.

Mr. Gordon, from his boyhood, was closely identified with the Democratic politics of Auglaize county and the northwestern section of the state. He was connected with the clerical departments of some of the county offices and with the Democratic local committees before he was 21 years old, and while an intense Democrat, he is withal tolerant of the political bias of others. He never permitted the game of politics, however, to interfere with his business affairs, which was first to receive his attention.

Mr. Gordon received the unanimous re-nomination to a second election by his constituents in 1900. His district being largely Democratic makes his election a certainty.

Socrates Tripped.
"No one," gravely announced Socrates, "can arrest the flight of time."
"No," quizzically interrupted a bystander. "I thought anybody could stop a minute." And even the disciples of the great philosopher were forced to smile behind their togas.

TUAN IS SENTENCED.

Chinese Decree Orders Him Imprisoned For Life.

SAME FATE FOR PRINCE CHWANG.

Some Other Anti-Foreign Leaders to Receive Punishment—Kang Yi Dead—Some of Them Were Named in Secretary Hay's Note Dated Oct. 3.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Minister Wu received from Director General Sheng the following cablegram, which he communicated to Secretary Hay:

"An imperial decree of Nov. 13, depriving Prince Tuan and Prince Chwang of their ranks and offices and orders them to be imprisoned for life. Prince Yih and Secondary Prince Ying to be imprisoned; Secondary Prince Lien to be deprived of his rank; Duke Lan and Ying Nien to be degraded in rank; Kang Yi being dead, no penalty can be imposed upon him, and Chao Shu Chiao to be degraded, but retained in office; and Tu Hsien to be exiled to the frontier boundary."

The Chinese officials mentioned in the decree are among the highest in China, and comprise most, if not all, of those against whom the powers demanded rigorous punishment.

From a Chinese standpoint, life imprisonment is an extreme penalty to a prince of the blood, but it remains to be seen whether the powers will regard it as adequate to Prince Tuan's offense. The others mentioned were Tuan's active associates and two of them were specifically mentioned for punishment, along with Tuan, in Secretary Hay's note of Oct. 3, advising the Chinese government that this country could expect these officials to receive their just deserts. Kang Yi is one of the officials who died suddenly after the demands for punishment had been made, probably by suicide. Yu Hsien is another who was thought to have committed suicide, but the edict indicates that he is still alive.

As the ministers at Peking also have been considering the question of punishment, it will develop speedily when they lay their demands before the Chinese emperor gives punishments which are regarded as adequate to fit the crimes.

WILL CLOSE GOTHAM TIGHT.

Chief Devery So Declared—Tammany Reform Committee Met.

New York, Nov. 17.—The committee, of five appointed by Richard Croker to suppress vice held its first meeting in Tammany hall. John Kellar, one of the committee, invited every citizen of New York, to lay before them any evidence that will help suppress the dives or prove public officials guilty of connivance with criminals or vice.

"Spare no one," was Croker's order to the committee.

Chief of Police Devery has men out to close the dives. He declares the town will be closed tight.

Fire Commissioner John J. Scannell, who was appointed as one of the members of the committee, declined to act for the reason that his duties as fire commissioner are so numerous and pressing as to preclude his services on the committee, which, he said, requires the time of the best men.

President York, of the police board, in speaking of Tammany hall's crusade against vice, said he would go to any length in co-operating with the Tammany committee or any other committee now existing.

INVESTIGATION IN CUBA.

Senate Committee Held Meeting and Adjourned Until After Congress Meets.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The senate committee on relations with Cuba held a meeting for the purpose of considering reports upon the receipts and expenditures in Cuba. These reports were made under a resolution adopted at the last session of the senate, authorizing the committee to investigate affairs in Cuba, on account of the alleged Neely defalcations.

The committee, after considering the question for some time, adjourned to meet again at the call of the chairman, after congress has convened. While there were about 1,500 pages of printed matter presented, it was stated that several of the accounts were still incomplete. It is estimated that the work will be completed in about a month.

Two Died of Burns.

HOPE NOT ABANDONED.

Little Change Reported in Davis' Condition—Said to Realize Himself.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—The condition of United States Senator Davis showed little change, according to the report from the sick room. Nothing is given out except through the physicians, whose bulletin reported the patient sleeping most of the time, but having a clear brain when awake. Temperature, 100; pulse, 108; respiration, 22. He continues to have a good appetite, but the ability to digest food is of great importance.

The weakened condition of the senator makes recuperation more difficult. His health, shattered in the civil war, was never fully restored. However, his strong will is battling with the disease and hope has not been abandoned, although it is admitted that his condition is very critical. He realizes his serious condition, and, it is stated, has made all arrangements as to his estate.

Last night Dr. A. J. Stone issued this bulletin, being later than the one referred to above:

PROBABLY SIX KILLED.

Fatal Collision on the Lake Shore—Three Known Dead—Three Reported Injured.

Oil City, Nov. 17.—A head-end collision between a Pennsylvania extra freight train and the regular Lake Shore passenger train occurred about two miles west of Polk. Both engines were demolished. All of the passenger coaches left the track and 40 oil and coal cars of the freight were derailed. The wreckage destroyed all telegraph communication. The killed were: Thomas Sutton, baggage man, of Ashtabula.

John Kane, brakeman of the freight train, aged 40, and a resident of New Castle.

Two male passengers and the news boy, name unknown, are supposed to be dead beneath the wreckage.

BUFFINGTON MAY MAKE DENIAL.

Hub Bub Over Alleged Securing of French Gun Secret.

Washington, Nov. 17.—It is believed General Buffington will send a letter to General Miles, denying he divulged the alleged secret that information about a French gun had been secured by an agent for the United States. The French papers, some of them, are raising a great agitation.

Captain Lewis, the man said to have secured the secret, came here from New York and conferred with General Miles.

Secretary Hay said that Ambassador Porter's departure from Paris had absolutely nothing to do with the gun plan commission and that Mr. Leishman will not succeed him, even temporarily. General Porter, Mr. Hay said, had asked for and obtained leave of absence long before the gun matter came up.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH CONGRESS.

OHIO IN CONGRESS

FROM 1803 TO 1901.

JOSEPH J. GILL.

Joseph J. Gill of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Ohio, was born in Barnesville, Belmont county, Ohio, Sept. 21, 1846. His parents were Samuel and Deborah Gill, members of the Society of Friends at Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson county, Ohio. He received an academic education, was graduated from the law school of the University of Michigan, and was admitted to the Jefferson county bar in 1868.

A year or two afterward he came within a very few votes of receiving the nomination by popular vote of the Republican party for prosecuting attorney. In 1873 he organized the National Exchange bank of Steubenville, Ohio, and became its cashier. In 1874 he engaged in glass manufacturing, which was the beginning of the business of the firm of Gill Brothers & Company of Steubenville, Ohio, owners of the largest factory, exclusively producing lamp chimneys, in the world.

While giving his attention to the glass business Mr. Gill invented the "Gill glass furnace," of which many were erected in different parts of this country and in Canada. In 1889 he became associated with Cleveland and New York capitalists, as successors to the late William Windom, the ex-secretary of the treasury; Senator Dorsey and others, in an extensive iron mining enterprise in Michigan, and of which he became the company's managing director. He is the owner of the Steubenville Daily and Weekly Herald-Star, the oldest established newspaper of Ohio, and which has been published continuously since March, 1806. Mr. Gill's participation in politics dates from 1872, when he took an active interest in the Republican congressional convention at Bellaire, Ohio, which resulted in the nomination of Lorenzo Danford. Some years later he conducted the campaign of J. T. Updegraff in his successful candidacy for the congressional nomination. In 1894 Mr. Gill was for the first time a candidate for congress, and received the highest number of votes during the deadlock in that convention, but after a careful consideration of his chances withdrew, when his delegates cast their votes for Lorenzo Danford, who was thereupon nominated. He was a delegate to the Republican national convention at St. Louis in 1896, which nominated William McKinley for president.

After the death of Lorenzo Danford in June, 1899, Mr. Gill became a candidate for congress to fill the unexpired term. His candidacy was endorsed by all the labor organizations of the locality, whose members recognized in him their friend and benefactor, and voted for him without regard to party. At the election he received the largest majority ever given a candidate for congress in his district, and in his own county the largest ever given a candidate for any office. Although he had never held office before he had always taken a keen interest in public affairs and in the success of the Republican party.

His father inherited slaves from kindred in Virginia, but was so imbued with the spirit of liberty that he at once gave to them their freedom. The son was imparted the same spirit, and with him it has always been a sacred principle that "the laborer is worthy of his hire." He has been one of the largest employers of labor in his district, and there has never been a reduction of wages in his factory.

Mr. Gill is of Quaker descent; was reared to manhood in Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, a prominent station on the "Underground Railroad," where Benjamin Lundy published his "Genius of Liberty," the pioneer anti-slavery paper of the country, and where public affairs were always matters of great interest. Such environments in early life naturally moulded his thoughts and made him an ardent Republican partisan.

His career in congress, however, will be that of a representative of the business and commercial interests, rather than that of a politician, and to his task he brings untiring energy, keen insight and a clear and patriotic conception of his duties as a representative of the people.

He was elected to the Fifty-sixth congress Nov. 7, 1899, as a Republican, from the Sixteenth district, Jefferson, Belmont, Carroll, Harrison and Monroe counties, and was the last representative in congress from Ohio in the nineteenth century, as Jeremiah Morrow was the first.

ROBERT B. GORDON.

Robert B. Gordon of St. Mary's, Auglaize county, was born on a farm near that city Aug. 6, 1855, and was educated in the St. Mary's public schools, graduating from the high school in 1874. In 1886 he was appointed postmaster of St. Mary's by President Cleveland, and in 1889 was elected auditor of Auglaize county, and re-elected in 1891. He was a delegate to the national Democratic convention in 1896. He is the proprietor of an extensive flouring mill at St. Mary's, and is also engaged in dealing in farm implements and agricultural machinery and is an extensive real estate owner.

He was elected to the Fifty-sixth congress in 1898, as a Democrat, from the Fourth district, composed of Auglaize, Allen, Darke, Mercer and Shelby counties.

Mr. Gordon, from his boyhood, was closely identified with the Democratic politics of Auglaize county and the northwestern section of the state. He was connected with the clerical departments of some of the county offices and with the Democratic local committees before he was 21 years old, and while an intense Democrat, he is withal tolerant of the political bias of others. He never permitted the game of politics, however, to interfere with his business affairs, which was first to receive his attention.

Mr. Gordon received the unanimous re-nomination to a second election by his constituents in 1900. His district being largely Democratic makes his election a certainty.

Ruhlin Signed Articles.

Socrates Tripped.
"No one," gravely announced Socrates, "can arrest the flight of time."
"No?" quizzically interrupted a bystander. "I thought anybody could stop a minute." And even the disciples of the great philosopher were forced to smile behind their togas.

TUAN IS SENTENCED.

SAME FATE FOR PRINCE CHWANG.

Some Other Anti-Foreign Leaders to Receive Punishment—Kang Yi Dead—Some of Them Were Named In Secretary Hay's Note Dated Oct. 3.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Minister Wu received from Director General Sheng the following cablegram, which he communicated to Secretary Hay:

"An imperial decree of Nov. 13, depriving Prince Tuan and Prince Chwang of their ranks and offices and orders them to be imprisoned for life. Prince Yih and Secondary Prince Ying Lien to be deprived of his rank; Duke Lan and Ying Nien to be degraded in rank; Kang Yi being dead, no penalty can be imposed upon him, and Ohao Shu Chiao to be degraded, but retained in office; and Tu Hsien to be exiled to the furthest boundary."

The Chinese officials mentioned in the decree are among the highest in China, and comprise most, if not all, of those against whom the powers demanded rigorous punishment.

From a Chinese standpoint, life imprisonment is an extreme penalty to a prince of the blood, but it remains to be seen whether the powers will regard it as adequate to Prince Tuan's offense. The others mentioned were Tuan's active associates and two of them were specifically mentioned for punishment, along with Tuan, in Secretary Hay's note of Oct. 3, advising the Chinese government that this country could expect these officials to receive their just deserts. Kang Yi is one of the officials who died suddenly after the demands for punishment had been made, probably by suicide. Yu Hsien is another who was thought to have committed suicide, but the edict indicates that he is still alive.

As the ministers at Peking also have been considering the question of punishment, it will develop speedily when they lay their demands before the Chinese emperor gives punishments which are regarded as adequate to fit the crimes.

WILL CLOSE GOTHAM TIGHT.

Chief Devery So Declared—Tammany Reform Committee Met.

New York, Nov. 17.—The committee of five appointed by Richard Croker to suppress vice held its first meeting in Tammany hall. John Kellar, one of the committee, invited every citizen of New York, to lay before them any evidence that will help suppress the dives or prove public officials guilty of connivance with criminals or vice.

"Spare no one," was Croker's order to the committee.

Chief of Police Devery has men out to close the dives. He declares the town will be closed tight.

Fire Commissioner John J. Scannell, who was appointed as one of the members of the committee, declined to act for the reason that his duties as fire commissioner are so numerous and pressing as to preclude his services on the committee, which, he said, requires the time of the best men.

President York, of the police board, in speaking of Tammany hall's crusade against vice, said he would go to any length in co-operating with the Tammany committee or any other committee now existing.

INVESTIGATION IN CUBA.

Senate Committee Held Meeting and Adjourned Until After Congress Meets.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The senate committee on relations with Cuba held a meeting for the purpose of considering reports upon the receipts and expenditures in Cuba. These reports were made under a resolution adopted at the last session of the senate, authorizing the committee to investigate affairs in Cuba, on account of the alleged Neely defalcations.

The committee, after considering the question for some time, adjourned to meet again at the call of the chairman, after congress has convened. While there were about 1,500 pages of printed matter presented, it was stated that several of the accounts were still incomplete. It is estimated that the work will be completed in about a month.

Two Died of Burns.

HOPE NOT ABANDONED.

Little Change Reported In Davis' Condition—Said to Realize Himself.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—The condition of United States Senator Davis showed little change, according to the report from the sick room. Nothing is given out except through the physicians, whose bulletin reported the patient sleeping most of the time, but having a clear brain when awake. Temperature, 100; pulse, 108; respiration, 22. He continues to have a good appetite, but the ability to digest food is of great importance.

The weakened condition of the senator makes recuperation more difficult. His health, shattered in the civil war, was never fully restored. However, his strong will is battling with the disease and hope has not been abandoned, although it is admitted that his condition is very critical. He realizes his serious condition, and, it is stated, has made all arrangements as to his estate.

Last night Dr. A. J. Stone issued this bulletin, being later than the one referred to above:

PROBABLY SIX KILLED.

Fatal Collision on the Lake Shore—Three Known Dead—Three Reported Injured.

Oil City, Nov. 17.—A head-end collision between a Pennsylvania extra freight train and the regular Lake Shore passenger train occurred about two miles west of Polk. Both engines were demolished. All of the passenger coaches left the track and 40 oil and coal cars of the freight were derailed. The wreckage destroyed all telegraph communication. The killed were: Thomas Sutton, baggage man, of Ashtabula.

John Kane, brakeman of the freight train, aged 40, and a resident of New Castle.

Two male passengers and the news boy, name unknown, are supposed to be dead beneath the wreckage.

BUFFINGTON MAY MAKE DENIAL.

Hub Bub Over Alleged Securing of French Gun Secret.

Washington, Nov. 17.—It is believed General Buffington will send a letter to General Miles, denying he divulged the alleged secret that information about a French gun had been secured by an agent for the United States. The French papers, some of them, are raising a great agitation.

Captain Lewis, the man said to have secured the secret, came here from New York and conferred with General Miles.

Secretary Hay said that Ambassador Porter's departure from Paris had absolutely nothing to do with the gun plan commission and that Mr. Leishman will not succeed him, even temporarily. General Porter, Mr. Hay said, had asked for and obtained leave of absence long before the gun matter came up.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH CONGRESS.

Special Prayers and Collects Said—Business Then Taken Up.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 17.—At the seventh session of the twentieth church congress of the Episcopal church of the United States, after the special prayers and collects had been said, Bishop McVicar, the presiding officer, announced the subject of "The ecclesiastical independence of the Protestant Episcopal church."

The writers upon this subject were the Rev. Dr. Charles C. Tiffany and George Zabriski, both of New York. The scheduled speakers were the Rt. Rev. William Creswell Doane, bishop of Albany; the Rev. Dr. S. D. McConnell, of Brooklyn, and the Rev. R. A. White, of Bloomfield, N. J.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Fair in northern, rain in southern portions today. Sunday, probably rain or snow.

Western Pennsylvania—Generally fair and warmer today; Sunday, increasing cloudiness and probably rain.

Cowardice of Sharks.

Many tales have been told of how human beings have been devoured by the fish that is known as the "man eater." Although many of these have been greatly exaggerated, they are to a certain extent true. It is also true that sharks have been known to follow a ship for days, picking up and eating that which had been thrown overboard as waste.

Notwithstanding all this the cowardliness of sharks is well known among men who have been much to sea in southern waters. The fiercest shark will get out of the way of a swimmer if the latter sets up a noisy splashing.

A shark fears anything that splashes in the water. Among the south sea islands the natives never go bathing alone, but always in parties of half a dozen or so, in order that they may make a great hubbub in the water and thus frighten away the sharks. Once in awhile a too venturesome swimmer among these natives foolishly detaches himself from his party and forgets to keep up his splashing. Then there is a swish, and the man eater comes up from under him like a flash, and he is gone.

Likewise Mistaken.

A small boy was fishing on Sunday morning. He had a basket of fish alongside of him. A clergyman happened to see him, and going over to where he was busily watching the bob said:

"You naughty, cruel boy! Don't you know that it is a sin to fish on the Sabbath? Besides the sin, think of the cruelty of it—taking the poor little worm out of the ground and sticking that nasty sharp hook through its body."

"That ain't no worm. That's an artificial fly!" answered the boy.

"Ah, I was mistaken," said the preacher.

"So were these fish," said the boy picking up the basket and showing them to the clergyman.—New York Sun.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE of CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 29, 1899.

Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

Cowardice of Sharks.

Many tales have been told of how human beings have been devoured by the fish that is known as the "man eater." Although many of these have been greatly exaggerated, they are to a certain extent true. It is also true that sharks have been known to follow a ship for days, picking up and eating that which had been thrown overboard as waste.

Notwithstanding all this the cowardliness of sharks is well known among men who have been much to sea in southern waters. The fiercest shark will get out of the way of a swimmer if the latter sets up a noisy splashing.

A shark fears anything that splashes in the water. Among the south sea islands the natives never go bathing alone, but always in parties of half a dozen or so, in order that they may make a great hubbub in the water and thus frighten away the sharks. Once in awhile a too venturesome swimmer among these natives foolishly detaches himself from his party and forgets to keep up his splashing. Then there is a swish, and the man eater comes up from under him like a flash, and he is gone.

Likewise Mistaken.

A small boy was fishing on Sunday morning. He had a basket of fish alongside of him. A clergyman happened to see him, and going over to where he was busily watching the bob said:

"You naughty, cruel boy! Don't you know that it is a sin to fish on the Sabbath? Besides the sin, think of the cruelty of it—taking the poor little worm out of the ground and sticking that nasty sharp hook through its body."

"That ain't no worm. That's an artificial fly!" answered the boy.

"Ah, I was mistaken," said the preacher.

"So were these fish," said the boy picking up the basket and showing them to the clergyman.—New York Sun.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

South Gaston, N. C., May 22, 1898.

Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1900.

A REVENUE MAN WAS IN THE CITY

Made It His Business to See If Local People Were Comply-
ing With Law.

BONDS OF CITY OFFICIALS

Stamp and It Cost Each
Man 50 Cents.

STAMPS WERE AFFIXED AT ONCE

Harvey H. Slusser is his name, and
he hails from Cincinnati. He occupies
the position of general deputy internal
revenue collector.

He did not announce his visit here
with a blaze of trumpets, but quietly
dropped in a few days ago to see if the people of this city were complying
in every respect with the internal revenue law.

Among other things he made an investigation of the bonds of the city
officers filed with Clerk Hanley. He
at once announced that all the bonds
filed by the city officials must have 50
cents worth of internal revenue
stamps on them. This was news to
the officials, but they complied with
his request, and it meant a gain to the government of $52.

The collector also found that the
bonds filed by the street paving contractors were minus the stamps, and
each one of their bonds were fixed
at once.

Where else he went is not known,
but he pretty generally investigated
to see if the revenue stamps were
them.

In the course of his travels he discovered that one party in the city had
a sign announcing that he did a general business in stocks and bonds,
while another gentleman had advertised the fact that he had done some business in the line and was willing
to do more.

Mr. Slusser informed them that they
must have a stockbroker's license,
which cost $50 per year, and in addition to this they were liable to $25
penalty, making them debtor to the
extent of $75.

Both of the gentlemen were very
much exercised over the matter and
one announced that he would go to
jail before he would pay up.

A letter was sent to Internal Revenue Collector McCord, who sent a copy of the law which showed that neither of the parties came under the head of stock brokers.

Mr. Slusser was informed and stated that he would report their cases to
the department, and if they heard no
more from it they would know that
they were on the safe side, and if
they were sent for they would realize
they would have to pay the license
and penalty. He stated that his orders
were to report such cases.

AFTER CUNNINGHAM.

Sheriff Noragon Will Arrest Him for Shooting Miss Laura
Green.

The "Salem Herald" of yesterday
prints the following in regard to that
shooting affray:

Sheriff Noragon, of Lisbon, was in the city today after Harry Cunningham, the potter, who was mentioned
with Miss Laura Green.

This afternoon Mayor Huxley issued
a warrant, charging Harry Cunningham with shooting with intent to kill.
Sheriff Noragon has the warrant in his possession and is now after Cunningham with good prospects of
landing his man.

Cunningham is said to be a dangerous man, and Sheriff Noragon went
on the hunt after him with the assistance of Marshal Johnson and Barney

The increase in the number of school
children in the state since the close
of the last fiscal year amounts to 16,631. The gain for the year 1898-99
was 11,031.

By the above figures it will be seen
that Columbiana county ranks seventh
in the state in point of school enumeration with 20,168.

Of this number 5,321 is the school
enumeration of East Liverpool, or over
one-fourth of the entire school population of the county. Of the 5,321 children of school age the enrollment of
the public schools is over 2,700 and
that of the parochial schools 400,
making a total of over 3,100 scholars
that are in almost daily attendance
at the city schools.

The average per cent of attendance
of pupils of school age in a large majority of the cities is between 58 and 60 per cent.

Last year in this city it was over
58 per cent and this year it is thought

that it will run at least 60 per cent.
East Liverpool has reason to be
proud of the excellent showing made.

SERIOUSLY BURNED.

LITTLE BERNICE DEIDRICK FELL
INTO THE GRATE.

State Whether She Will Recover.

Bernice, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deldrick, of Calcutta road, met with an accident
this morning, at her home, that may
cause her death.

The little one was playing in the parlor with a neighbor child, when
she fell in the grate and was very badly burned.

Dr. Bailey was called and the child
made as comfortable as possible,
but he is unable as yet to tell whether
the accident will result fatally.

HE GOT CAY.

Yesterday.

Harry Jones is a friend of Charles
King, who was arrested Thursday
night for being drunk and asleep in
an alley between Second and Third
streets, and when he heard that King
was in jail he was very mad. He was slightly under the influence of liquor
at the Cleveland & Pittsburg passenger station yesterday afternoon, and
when he saw Officer Mahony commenced using profane language and
said if King's fine was $400 he would
pay it.

Mahony thought the passenger station was a bad place for Jones to swear
and he was taken to city hall and locked up. He was given a hearing
today.

A PLEASANT TIME.

Rev. And Mrs. Crawford Entertained
the Young Men of the First M. E.
Church.

Last evening the home of Rev. and Mrs. Clark Crawford was the scene of
a very pleasant gathering of young
men of the church and congregation
of the First M. E. church.

The quartet of the church rendered
two very pleasing selections and Miss Maud Croxall played two splendid
piano solos.

The guests enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Light refreshments were served.

DISGRACEFUL FIGHT

Took Place Yesterday in a Second Street Disreputable
Joint.

A fight occurred between a brewery
driver and a colored man in a disrepu-
table joint on Second street yesterday
afternoon, in which the negro, although much the larger man, was pretty badly used up.

It is said the fellow got no more than
he deserved, as he had been hunting

LITERARY EXERCISES.

The First of the Season Were Held
Afternoon.

The first literary exercises of the
present term were held in the high school yesterday afternoon. No decision was reached in the debate,
owing to the lack of preparation on
the part of some of the participants.
The subject: "Resolved that the world

HE MAY SUE FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Albert Geon's Leg Is Still Causing

BE BETTER FOR 14 DAYS

Result of a Street Car Jumping the Track Near the Watering
Trough.

INJURY MAY BE PERMANENT

There is a probability that the East Liverpool Street Railway company will soon find itself defendant
in a $10,000 damage case.

Albert Geon, who was injured by being thrown from his seat when a
street car jumped the track near the
watering trough Thursday afternoon,
is still suffering extreme pain with
his left leg and has been unable to use it since the accident occurred.

He states that the physician has
told him that he will not guarantee
any better results for 14 days, and if
at the expiration of that time his leg
against the company for $10,000 dam-
ages.

The accident, it is claimed, was not
due to any carelessness or negligence
on the part of Mr. Geon, who made
every effort to save himself when the car jumped the track. Should the
suit be entered it is probable that
run will cut quite a figure.

SINGING CLASS.

Gardendale Citizens Will Organize a Singing Society on Next Mon-
day Evening.

Monday evening Prof. Philis will

and the residents of that part of the city are all invited to attend.

It is desired that as many members
as possible be secured for the class.

Join the Foot Ball Club of That Place.

National Guard foot ball team, will
leave on Monday for Monessen, where
he has secured a position in the mill
at that place.

He has been engaged to play half
back on the foot ball team there, and
will spend the winter in that city.

Winter in Arizona And California.

les, California, where he will spend

fitting his health.

vice will be held in this city on December 15. Applications must be filed ber 27.

FROM DAYTON MILITARY HOME

Here Is a Very 'Readable Letter
From the Pen of an Old Soldier.

HE TELLS HIS STORY WELL

Men Now at the Home Who Have
In Days Gone By.

GLAD M'KINLEY WAS ELECTED

Dayton, O., Nov. 15, 1900.

Dear Editor and Friends and Comrades—This Home is a mile square, on an eminence overlooking the Miami valley and the city of Dayton. The Home proper covers about 80 acres. It has many fine avenues, each one named after some northern state. They are nicely paved with fine, broad cement sidewalks, lined with splendid maple and elm shade trees. There are 36 barracks, mostly large three-story brick buildings, with all modern improvements, such as bathing rooms, hot and cold water, gas and heated up by hot air.

There are two large dining rooms with a seating capacity for 2,000 persons. Each man has his place. Everything goes to the minute by the sound of a gong, at 6 a. m., 12 m. and 5 p. m.

In one hour 4,000 have eaten, tables cleared, dishes washed, etc. There are about 6,000 members in the Home; usually about 600 on furlough and about 800 in the hospital.

The hospital is a magnificent structure, kept in the finest order. There are 10 annexes, where the cripples and convalescents stay. Every morning there is a military funeral, from one to five being taken to their last resting place.

The cemetery is nicely located on moderately sloping ground; 7,000 veterans having crossed to the great beyond and are sleeping their last sleep in this beautiful city of the dead. A fine monument marks this ground. It has a fifty-foot pedestal, with an eight-foot heroic statue of a soldier. On each corner of the marble base stands a life like marble statue of an infantryman, an artilleryman, a sailor and a cavalryman.

At the head of each grave there is a nice marble stone, giving name, company, regiment and date of death. The graves are even with the ground, covered with a fine grassy sod, which is kept like a lawn.

There is a fine Protestant and Catholic church, with great organs. Each has a chaplain and a city choir, and Memorial hall is a handsome building and has a seating capacity of 1,800. It is fitted up the same as a city opera or theatrical building, and during the winter season many entertainments are given by first-class theatrical troupes.

There is a fine club house, three stories high. On entering it, to the left is a reading and writing room, with all kinds of newspapers and magazines, envelopes, letter paper, pen and ink, free. Above are the halls of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Union Veteran Legion posts. On the opposite side there are billiard and pool tables, with two galleries seated with easy chairs, where those who desire can sit and enjoy the amusement. In the rear of these, all around, there are small rooms, where they play cards and other games. No gambling is tolerated.

kinds of games to break the monotony of life. This all as free as water to the veteran, so long as he conducts himself in a gentlemanly manner.

The library building is a fine three-story brick structure. In it are two separate libraries, with 20,000 volumes of all kinds of literature. In fact you can find anything you want. Members are allowed one volume for two weeks, but they can procure a different one each day if they so desire. On the first floor of this building is the reading room, nicely fitted up and seated for those who may desire to sit down and inform themselves as to the daily news and doings of the world. On file you will find the leading daily newspapers, from Boston and all the large cities in the United States.

Around the walls of this room hang large pictures of illustrious persons, such as Washington, Lincoln, Garfield, Sherman, Sheridan, Hancock, etc.

The Home can boast of as fine an hotel as there is in the country. There is a canteen or beer hall, for soldiers only. It does a thriving business, especially about pension or extra duty pay days. This building and the pavilion attached to it will accommodate 500 persons. No liquors are sold outside of beer. Some days they sell as much as 50 barrels; but you see very few drunk men. It is patronized mostly by old Germans.

There is a Home store where we can purchase anything we need. There is a large steam laundry that washes 40,000 pieces weekly for the Home. There are shops of all kinds. All clothing is made up at this Home. Hundreds of soldiers' widows and children take sewing out to their homes, which aids them very much in making a living. There are probably 500 soldiers employed in the Home at some kind of labor, either working on the farm, in the various shops, the laundry, beautifying the grounds, etc. The members are of various nationalities, the Germans and Irish predominating. There are more captains, majors and colonels than you can shake a stick at. Also, old army surgeons, chaplains, mechanics, machinists, etc.

You will naturally ask who controls or governs this vast affair? The man who does so is entitled "governor," and he ranks as a colonel in the army. The present governor is J. B. Thomas, who was an M. D. in the 25th Illinois. He has been connected with this Home in some capacity from its organization up to the present time, and he has everything down to a fine point. His word is law. And of all these 6,000 veterans there is not over 10 per cent who are unruly. All a man has to do is to obey the rules governing the hours and he is all right.

You arise at 5 o'clock a. m. Each member has a good, comfortable bed with a ward robe standing by, in which to keep his clothing and other effects. He has to 8 o'clock a. m. to make up his bed, etc., then he can go his way until 8 p. m. He is then expected to be on hand. He has nothing to do, except once in three months he has to work one week as a waiter in the dining room, or pay some one else $2 to do it for him.

The Home has a wide hedge fence, with barbed wire intermingled, so that the members can get out only at the large gate. Passes are given by the governor from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. A member can get a pass twice a week, and if he behaves himself, in due time he gets a red card pass and he is at liberty to go out and in every day as often as he may choose. The governor holds court at 8 a. m. regularly, Sundays excepted. There is all the way from one to forty present. He is court, judge, jury and all. He holds, or is supposed to hold, justice in one hand, and his undivided will in the other. He knows all the old offenders so his mill grinds fast. A new member he may excuse, or give the limit for 30 days. That is he can have no pass. Others he may take their pass away from them indefinitely, until further orders. The worst offense is to jump the fence; in other words, to go out of camp without a pass and come in drunk, with a bottle of old red eye on your person; the penalty is 30 to 60 days on the dump, or, in plainer language, 30 to 60 days at hard labor. Some bad men are placed in the quarantine, something like your county jails and kept there for months.

But when a man gets utterly incorrigible, he has his soldier's buttons cut off his clothing and is taken to one of the gates and bounced out; then he can root hog or die. This is also the penalty for stealing; but most minor offenses are leniently dealt with.

This is a great point for picnics and excursions during the summer season. They come from nearby and from all parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. In a fine maple grove we hold camp meetings from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. The old ex-army chaplains are like an old horse when he hears the bugle. They hear the noise and get there and stir the boys up. The Salvation Army comes out from Dayton with drums, etc., and make things lively. We have a deer park, in which are more than 50 deer. Immediately in front of my barracks is the campus, of about 10 acres of beautiful lawn, kept nice. It is surrounded on two sides by wide cement walks and along the walks are iron seats. In the center of this campus, or lawn, is a handsome band stand. The Home band is composed of 36 instruments. It is said to be the best band in the state. During the summer season they discourse music from 3 to 5 o'clock every evening, Sunday excepted, and thousands of spectators, both soldiers and citizens, are usually present to enjoy the music. On Saturday there are hundreds of carriages from Dayton, and hundreds come out on the two electric street railway lines to enjoy the band concert.

Near the campus is the beautiful grotto, the wonderland for all. You can go down to it by winding stone steps, and find a terrace and a spring gushing out of a rocky ledge. The water makes a bubbling brook which, running a short way, goes over a cascade of several feet into a basin in which gold and silver fish are floating about. Nearby there is a spring of iron water, coming from the rocks. Now we are in the grotto. It is of a horse shoe or more nearly a triangular shape. One side of the angle is of nearly perpendicular, stony foundation; the other slopes away gradually. Everything is picturesque. There are three small lakes, one entering the other over a 20-foot fall. In the center of one of these is a fountain, which throws water 50 feet high. Crossing brooks, leading to the lakes, are rustic bridges and miniature islands, covered with flowers and fountains. Artificial cement basins of water, with beautiful water flowers, the lilly, of all kinds and colors, from every clime.

They make a picture so pretty that men and women pause to admire the sylvan scenery. Around the lakes there are shrubs and flowers, domestic and exotic, the Oleander, with bright flower; the Rose of Sharon; it is decked like a bride, in the draperies

of fancy, and turn in any direction there are canopies of beauty. There are large mounds, laid out by expert landscape gardeners. These are covered with fine designs of home and tropical plants, shrubs and flowers and variegated grasses. Here you cannot sit under the vine and fig and sing "On Earth Peace, Good Will to Men," but you can sit under the vine and banana tree and contemplate the beauties of nature and think what beauties the Creator has given to man to feast his vision upon, and I often think how can any one be an agnostic. We leave the grotto and go up winding stone steps, and looking below, we see a great glass and iron conservatory, 40 or 50 feet in height. And now we are in Arcadia. There are great palms, plants and shrubs, from Europe, Asia, the West Indies, and even from the old Bible lands. They have the myrtle and red cedar. The sight is so fine that it is bewildering. Away above are hanging baskets of roses and flowers; the Empress of China vine rose and the vine plumatta, with most all of the prismatic colors in view. There are numerous hot houses at hand, where these flowers are propagated. Near the eastern gate is the Alligator cage and water basin, in which are five alligators, weighing from 20 up to 200 pounds, and from two to 30 years old. They are a curiosity to visitors. Outside the Dayton or eastern gate there is a "Midway" of a number of acres. It is located between two different lines of electric railways running from Dayton to the Home. There is a large merry-go-round, a scenic railway and hurdy gurdys.

After all, beautiful things and amusements become at times monotonous. I find that I have plenty of time to chew the cud of discontent. A man is not content merely because his stomach is filled and his body clothed. The man who is physically able to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow is the contented one. But in mind, I have joined the no worry club and solace myself by thinking if I have been unfortunate I have plenty of company. The board of managers and officers of this Home most emphatically impress it upon our minds that this is not a charitable institution, but a gift from the nation for what we did in our youth to sustain the union and the flag. The governor would give a member 90 days in jail if he called a comrade a pauper.

The presidential election is over, and you can rest assured that the veterans of this Home, almost to a man, voted as they shot; namely, for McKinley and Roosevelt, thank God. The people did not turn from McKinley and his patriotic and successful administration; so resolute in the maintenance of American principles and our country's best hopes for the future. Old Glory is the advance agent of civilization. Its stars and stripes strike the welcoming chord

There is cause for anxiety when a cough hangs on for a year and can't be shaken off. The quickest way to relieve that anxiety is to begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a cough remedy, but it is also a great deal more. In far advanced stages of disease, when hemorrhages have been frequent, and there have been emaciation and weakness, "Golden Medical Discovery" has produced a perfect cure. It increases the supply of the life fluid—blood. It cleanses the blood from impurities, and sends a current of rich, new blood to build up the weak places in the body with new life.

The "Discovery" is strictly a temperance medicine, non-alcoholic and non-narcotic.

"For one year I was troubled with a cough," writes Mr. H. E. Curtis, of Sumner, Bremer Co., Iowa. "As I continued to cough during the summer, my wife became anxious, and wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for medical advice. It seemed to us that we could not go to a better source for advice, and so it proved, as the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which was recommended, proved just the medicine to effect a cure. Dr. Pierce and his medicines are 'As good as wheat,' as the farmers used to say."

VETERAN'S LETTER.

Read the letter sent us from the Dayton Military Home by Comrade Joseph McCoy. It is a readable article, and shows to a nicety how the old veterans are situated at Dayton. Comrade McCoy has sent us a handsome picture of the Home, and we have the same now on exhibition in our front office.

TENEMENT HOUSES.

East Liverpool is destined to expand. There is not the shadow of a doubt about this. And we must have small houses in order to accommodate the renters who are seeking to become residents in our hustling city. Capitalists and men who are seeking investments must and will awake to a realization of this fact, and the men who awaken first will reap a generous harvest, as they deserve to do.

TAXATION.

There are many sides to the question of taxation. The subject is a wide and varied one. It is one of the principal topics of conversation in Columbiana county at the present time. Treasure up in your mind the various stories you hear respecting the matter from time to time, and compare notes in the sweet after while. You will find much to interest you at all times in the study of economic questions, and you may possibly be the identical individual who will confer an inestimable blessing upon the world at large by solving the puzzle of how to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest mass.

THE LIVE ADVERTISER.

We have several of him in East Liverpool. He knows that he must keep good goods, make no misrepresentations, sell at close margins and make heavy sales add to his net income. He must not indulge in spasmodic and periodical advertising if he would score constant success. He must be a steady and persistent advertiser, always before the people, and must make his advertisements as bright and spicy as is consistent with the facts in the case. He must not deceive the public. He must have the goods and then let the public know that he has them and that he wishes to dispose of them, and that he will surely give the purchaser his money's worth every time that purchaser patronizes him. Such a business man and such an advertiser is always sure of success.

WHY DO YOU SUFFER?

He yielded to the solicitations of his friends, and with but few treatments, he has found wonderful relief and has been blessed with ease and comfort and refreshing slumber at night, something that has been denied him for the past 35 years.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We respectfully call the attention of our agents, and the music-loving public in general, to the fact that certain parties are manufacturing and have placed upon the market a cheap Piano, bearing a name so similar to our own (with a slight difference in spelling) that the purchaser may be led to believe that he is purchasing a genuine "Sohmer Piano."

We deem it our duty to those who have been favorably impressed with the fine quality and high reputation of the "Sohmer Piano" to warn them against the possibility of an imposition by unscrupulous dealers or agents. Every genuine "Sohmer Piano" has the above Trade Mark stamped upon the sounding board.

FINAL REPORT TO BE MADE MONDAY

Their Work at the Union
Co-operative Pottery.

TOTALS WERE NOT MADE UP

Is a Very Conservative
One.

THE PLANT IS STILL RUNNING

The affairs of the Union pottery of
this city are about to be wound up
and Receiver Cartwright will make his
final report to the court next week:

The appraisers have finished their
up, and it is not known just what it
will amount to. It is known, however, that it is a very conservative appraisal and the value of the plant
figure.

At present the plant is working on
a few orders and sorting up stock.

There is at present no purchaser for
the pottery, and it is expected when
it goes to sale some of the present
members will buy it.

Coaling Stage.

There are many business men in East Liverpool who are anxiously
looking and hoping for a rise in the waters of the Ohio river. We need a coaling stage very badly. And there
are other industries aside from the
coal trade which would be benefited
materially by a boating stage of water.
No wonder that men will halt you on
our thoroughfares and make inquiry:
"Say, old man, do you think there is
any prospect of a good river in con-

Chautauqua Circle.

The Chautauqua Circle met last night at the residence of Dr. Bailey.
The members report an exceedingly enjoyable time. Miss E. P. Hazlett gave a character study on Marat, winning warm commendation. The circle
will meet on Friday night next at the residence of Dr. Hobbs, Fifth street. They will take up some selections respecting Russia and her treatment of Finland, aside from the regular lesson.

A LIGHT.

Jim Johnson, a Colored Man, Was Almost Beaten to Death in Chester.

There was a large sized row in the upper part of town last night, in which
Jim Johnson, a colored man, was almost beaten to death.

Brown & Coates, came to East Liverpool early in the evening and when
they returned found that the shanty
in which they had been living, and
which was owned by Oscar Frank,
had been torn down.

They went to the shanty of John-
son and asked for permission to stay
all night. They were refused and told
to go about their business. This angered the men so they forced the door
and beat Johnson into insensibility.

No arrests were made, although the
authorities are investigating the affair.

an organization will be formed by the
election of officers.

They will also extend a call for a
pastor. Rev. W. B. Gillis will undoubtedly be their first choice, as the people of that section like the young man
very much, and he has signified his
willingness to take the pastorate if
offered to him.

Lost His False Teeth.

Henry Dolby, who drives team for Contractor Severs, was so unfortunate yesterday as to lose his false
teeth while hauling gravel. He did
not discover his loss for about an half
hour, and when he did miss them he
hastened to the gravel pit, where the
entire force of men suspended operations while a general search was instituted. The teeth were finally located

Pleasant Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was
given last evening at the residence
of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner, Pennsylvania avenue, in honor of the 25th
birthday of Samuel Larkins.

When Mr. Larkins arrived home at
his gentlemen friends seated at the
table awaiting him. It was a complete surprise, and a very enjoyable
evening was spent.

After supper Rev. C. G. Jordan, in
a pleasant little speech, presented
Mr. Larkins with a handsome umbrel-
la.

Another surprise was in store for
the young man, for about 9 o'clock
a large number of the members of
the four F's society swooped down
upon him, and this time the surprise
was even more complete than on the previous occasion, as he was entirely
unprepared for it.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed
by all present. Refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour.

Stole His Chicken.

John Forbes owns a very fine Bantam rooster and yesterday morning it
was stolen.

Mr. Forbes did a little detective
work and was not long in fixing the
blame upon two small boys in that vicinity.

He informed them that in case the
rooster was not returned to him by 6 o'clock last night he would cause
their arrest. Mr. Forbes posted Officer Hamilton to be in readiness, but
it was not necessary, as the boys returned the property.

Trusses at the E. E. Pharmacy.

Preparatory Services.

This evening at the Second United
Presbyterian church, Rev. J. R. Greene
will take for his subject at 7:30:
"Preparation of the Heart for Communion."

This will be the last preparatory services which have been in progress at this church all week. The meetings have been well attended, and several accessions were made.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth
and Washington,

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and
parties is what we seek.

accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home
from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties
we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance
for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell
you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here
yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, you find such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any properties to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work executed, such as acknowledgements, writing of wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business.
No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity.
We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who
are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know
when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer in-quirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner.
Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate
and valuable service.

MOB CREMATES A FIEND

Negro Burned at the Scene of His Crime.

VICTIM'S FATHER FIRED PYRE.

The Black Boy Shrieked In Agony. Begged to Be Shot—Fell Almost Out of Fire and Another Was Built Over His Prostrate Body.

Limon, Col., Nov. 17.—Chained to a railroad rail set firmly in the ground, on the exact spot where his fiendish crime was committed, Preston Porter, Jr., or, as he was familiarly known, John Porter, paid a terrible penalty for the assault and murder of 11-year-old Louise Frost. The father of the murdered girl touched the match to the fuel which had been piled around the negro, and in about 20 minutes a last convulsive shudder told that life was extinct.

The executioners, who numbered about 300 citizens of Lincoln county, had not the least semblance of the ordinary mob.

Preston Porter did not seem to realize the awful punishment that he was destined to undergo. As he had exhibited indifference to the enormity of his crime, so he seemed to lack all understanding of its terrible consequences. For more than an hour, while preparations for his execution were in progress, he stood mute and sullen among the avengers. When everything was ready he walked to the stake with a firm step, pausing as he reached the circle of broken boards, to kneel in prayer. He was allowed to take his time. He arose and placed his back to the iron stake and half a dozen men wound chains about his body and limbs. Kerosene oil was applied to the wood and after a brief pause Richard W. Frost, the father of little Louise Frost, whose cruelly mutilated body was found one week ago on that very spot, applied the match. For a moment but a little flickering flame arose. Then the oil blazed up, sparks flew into the air and the wood began to crackle. Almost instantly the negro's trousers caught fire. Even though the flesh must have been scorched, he did not utter a sound. The flames crept slowly upward on his clothing, the sparks flew up in a cloud of pale smoke. Porter turned his head and a frightful expression changed his face. With a sudden convulsive tugging he stretched his head as far from the rapidly increasing flames as possible and uttered a cry of pain. "Oh, my God, let me go, men. I've got something more to tell you. Please let me go. Oh, my God, my God." In terrible shrieks these words, the first he had uttered alone, came from the negro. There was terrible tugging at the chains, a succession of awful groans and screams. The negro's agony was at last breaking down his sullen composure. Not an oath escaped him, but he begged and pleaded to be shot. Suddenly the rope holding his hands burned through. Then arms, head and shoulders slipped through the chains. For an instant the body stood erect, the arms were raised in supplication while burning pieces of cloth dropped from them. The body then fell away from the fire, the head lower than the feet, still fastened to the rail. This was not expected, and for a few minutes those stolid men were disconcerted. They feared that the only remaining chain would give way. If this had occurred the partly burned human being might have dashed among them in his blazing garments. And not many would have cared to capture him again. But the chain held fast. The body was then in such a position that only the legs were in the fire. The cries of the wretch were redoubled and he again begged to be shot. Some wanted to throw him over into the fire, others tried to dash oil upon him. Boards were carried and a large pile made over the prostrate body. They soon were ignited and the terrible heat and lack of air quickly rendered the victim unconscious, bringing death a few moments later.

After the fire had burned low they told each other good night and they left the scene, apparently for their homes. They did not stop to discuss the affair.

When the train bearing the negro in custody of Sheriff Freeman and his deputies arrived in Limon from Denver the cars were crowded with newspaper reporters and people who were curious to see the negro executed. R. W. Frost, the murdered girl's father, was one of the passengers. When the train stopped 16 men, who had been selected by the vigilance committee, entered the train and demanded the prisoner from the sheriff. The officer protested in the name of the law and asked the men to allow him to take his prisoner to the county jail at Hugo, but his protests were disregarded. One man carried a rope, of which had been formed a hangman's noose. This was slipped over the negro's neck. It was at first announced that the negro was to be executed by hanging. Many, including the father of the negro's victim, protested that such a death would be too easy, and it was finally decided to leave the method of death to the outraged father. He decided upon burning at the stake. The train was then allowed to proceed, and at Lake Station, about three miles from Limon, the party left the train and began preparations for the deed of vengeance. Suggestions of mutilation before burning were made, but Mr. Frost declared against them.

The negro had, since his confession, been devoting much time to the perusal of a Bible given him by the Denver jailer. Even while waiting for his execution he sat by a bonfire reading from the gospel of St. Luke. Just before he was tied to the stake, upon a request for souvenirs, the boy tore the leaves of the Bible and distributed them among his executioners.

ARMY NEEDS REORGANIZING

Washington, Nov. 17.—Lieutenant General Miles, commanding the army, in his report, points out the need for a general reorganization of the military service. He says in part:

"The need for an efficient and well-organized land force for an indefinite period in the future is most obvious, and the organization of such a force cannot be wisely avoided. There are weighty reasons why such a service as is now demanded of the army cannot be performed by a temporary organization."

General Miles points out that the practical limitation of service of the volunteers to one year in the Philippines makes this a most expensive practice, necessitating double transfer of troops and adding enormously to the cost of the organization. He also points out the need of a reserve force for the relief of the soldiers who serve in the tropics, declaring the regiments that have so far served more than two years at unhealthy stations should be relieved. General Miles renews his recommendation that the permanent force of the army should be one man for each 1,000 of population of the United States. He submits a draft of a bill embodying his views and recommendations on army reorganization.

The report shows that the urgent demands for troops for remote stations has reduced the number in the United States to a much smaller force than has been sustained at any time during the past 30 years. In fact, says General Miles, the force has been so much reduced that at the present time there are not one-fourth enough troops properly to care for and man the fortifications which have been erected on the sea coast at an expenditure of nearly $55,000,000. In addition to the military deficiency, the present home force is not sufficient to occupy the interior garrisons properly, or to protect life and property on the western frontier.

Touching upon the Chinese campaign, General Miles compares the American contingent in the Peking expedition with those of other nationalities, and praises the Americans.

Great reverence is said to be due the memory of Colonel E. S. Liscum, who fell while leading his troops with undaunted courage and marked ability. The services of Major Jesse M. Lee, of the Ninth infantry, who took command of American forces at Tien Tsin after Colonel Liscum's death, are commended. Captain Reilly is also named as an ideal soldier, without fear and without reproach, who, by his death at Peking, again demonstrated the zeal and courage of the American soldier.

General Miles claims that the fortifications board has developed a high explosive, superior in effectiveness to all known safe military explosives.

Important action has also been taken by the same board in the development of artillery. General Miles does not think it wise to longer delay the practical application of self-moving vehicles to the military service.

PUT CHECK ON VICE.

COMPLAINS OF POLICE CONNIVANCE

New York, Nov. 17.—Bishop Henry C. Potter, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of New York, sent a letter to Mayor Van Wyck in reference to vice in this city, and especially on the East Side.

At the present writing there are three movements directed against vice as it is displayed on the great East Side. These are a quietly conducted investigation by District Attorney Gardiner in connection with Anthony Comstock's Society for the Suppression of Vice; Tammany's appointment of a committee to investigate present conditions and Bishop Potter's crusade.

Bishop Potter in his letter to Mayor Van Wyck first calls attention to the work that is being done at the pro-cathedral, 130 Stanton street, in endeavoring to improve the condition of the poor of the East Side tenement district, in which it is located, and says it has been recognized as an important factor in promoting the virtue and good order of the community in which it ministers. He continued in part:

"In view of these facts it would seem that it has a valid claim upon the sympathy, co-operation, and at least courteous consideration of those who officially represent our city government and the guardianship of decency and good morals."

Further along Bishop Potter told how, when two clergymen called at the police station of the precinct to complain of the notorious condition of affairs, one of them was told by the police captain that he lied; and that when, disheartened by such an experience, the clergyman carried his complaint to a higher authority in the police, he was met with insolent derision.

The bishop further along in his letter said in part:

"I am not, I beg to say, unmindful of the fact that the existence of vice in a great city is, practically, an inevitable condition of the life of such a community. I am not demanding that vice shall be 'stamped out' by the police or any other civil authority. This is a task which would demand for its achievement a race of angels and not of men. But I approach you, sir, to protest with all my power against a condition of things in which vice is not only tolerated, but shielded and encouraged by those whose sworn duty it is to suppress and discourage it, and, in the name of unsullied youth and innocence, of young girls and their mothers, who, though living under conditions often of privation and the hard struggle for livelihood, have in them every instinct of virtue and purity that are the ornaments of any so-called gentleman in the land; and before God and in the face of the citizens of New York I protest, as my people have charged me to do, against the habitual insult, the persistent menace, the unutterably defiling contacts, to which, day by day, because of the base complicity of the police of New York with the lowest forms of vice and crime, they are subject."

"And, in the name of these little ones, these weak and defenseless ones, Christian and Hebrew alike, of many races and tongues, but of homes in which God is feared and his law revered, and virtue and decency honored and exemplified, I call upon you, sir, to save these people, who are in a very real way committed to your charge, from a living hell, defiling, deadly damning, to which the criminal supineness of the constituted authorities set for the defense of decency and good order, threatens to doom them."

Bishop Potter, in conclusion, says he has no methods to suggest for the bettering of the conditions; these are in the hands of the mayor. He says his letter is in accordance with instructions laid on him by the convention of the Episcopal church of this diocese and he leaves the matter in the mayor's hands.

Mayor Van Wyck at once replied to the bishop by letter, in which he said he had passed the bishop's communication to the district attorney, and then says:

"I wish here to assure you that I will exert every power which the law has given to right the wrongs and to do away with the conditions of which you complain and to secure a hearty and efficient co-operation by the police department with all who are working to do away with the public violations of law and decency. I stand ready at all times to assist and co-operate with you in this matter."

Mayor Van Wyck's letter to the district attorney requests him to co-operate with Bishop Potter and the police department in the movement. In a letter to the board of police commissioners the mayor encloses a copy of the bishop's letter and directs the commissioners to at once conduct a searching investigation into the conduct of the two police officials whom the bishop says insulted the clergymen. He also directs them to at once do away with the conditions complained of on the East Side. The mayor's closing paragraph is:

"I wish it distinctly understood that to this end I shall use to the utmost limit all the power vested in me, and that I shall hold to personal responsibility those who fail to exert themselves in like manner."

GRIGGS RESIGNS.

Expects to Leave the Cabinet March 4, Next.

Washington, Nov. 17.—At a cabinet meeting Attorney General Griggs informed the president and his colleagues that after mature deliberation he had concluded that it would be impossible for him to remain a member of the cabinet for the next four years.

The resignation of the attorney general will not take effect until March 4 next, and it is thought at present that all the other members, with the possible exception of the secretary of war, will retain their present positions.

OPPOSED BY THE PRESIDENT.

He Don't Favor Cutting Down South's Congressional Representation.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The opinion is growing among public men who are in the confidence of the president that he will oppose any movement looking to a reduction of the congressional representation of the southern states, on account of charges of the disfranchisement of colored voters. The president is said to be opposed to reviving ill feeling, which he thinks would be the result if a bill thus touching the south's suffrage.

On account of the president's attitude there is a growing opinion that such legislation will not be pressed by party leaders in congress. In this connection it is suggested that any action taken with reference to the suffrage of the south in advance of the adoption of a definite policy in the Philippines might throw some embarrassment in the way of the proper disposition of the citizenship rights of the Filipinos, and, moreover, it is felt that the government has as much as it can deal with now without getting into a contention over domestic affairs.

PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO ATTEND.

Other Prominent People May Be at a Philadelphia Club Banquet.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Following the recent announcement that President McKinley will attend the celebration of Founders' day at the Union league, Philadelphia's famous Republican club, an additional announcement was made that Vice President-elect Roosevelt will also attend, along with Secretary of War Root, Secretary of State Hay, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, Attorney General Griggs and Postmaster General Smith.

Condemned Man Smiled.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 17.—Robert F. Hill, convicted recently of the murder of his wife, Edith May Hill, was sentenced by Supreme Court Justice Garrison to be hanged on Wednesday, January 16, next. The prisoner smiled as he entered the court room and smiled as he bowed to the court, after being sentenced.

Dowie's Linenmakers Must Return.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—The board of inquiry, which has been investigating the case of the 25 lace workers alleged to have been brought to this country from Europe by Zionist Dowie in violation of the contract labor law, decided that the men, women and children composing the party must return to their homes.

Killed by a Railway Shifting Engine.

Harrisburg, Nov. 17.—Andrew Joski, aged 62 years, while picking wood on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at Steelton, was struck by a shifting engine and instantly killed.

Frederick W. Royce Dead.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Frederick W. Royce, widely known as an inventor, electrician and veteran telegraph operator, dropped dead from apoplexy here.

OHIO IN CONGRESS

FROM 1803 TO 1901.

JOSEPH J. GILL.

Joseph J. Gill of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Ohio, was born in Barnesville, Belmont county, Ohio, Sept. 21, 1846. His parents were Samuel and Deborah Gill, members of the Society of Friends at Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson county, Ohio. He received an academic education, was graduated from the law school of the University of Michigan, and was admitted to the Jefferson county bar in 1868.

A year or two afterward he came within a very few votes of receiving the nomination by popular vote of the Republican party for prosecuting attorney. In 1873 he organized the National Exchange bank of Steubenville, Ohio, and became its cashier. In 1874 he engaged in glass manufacturing, which was the beginning of the business of the firm of Gill Brothers & Company of Steubenville, Ohio, owners of the largest factory, exclusively producing lamp chimneys, in the world.

While giving his attention to the glass business Mr. Gill invented the "Gill glass furnace," of which many were erected in different parts of this country and in Canada. In 1889 he became associated with Cleveland and New York capitalists, as successors to the late William Windom, the ex-secretary of the treasury; Senator Dorsey and others, in an extensive iron mining enterprise in Michigan, and of which he became the company's managing director. He is the owner of the Steubenville Daily and Weekly Herald-Star, the oldest established newspaper of Ohio, and which has been published continuously since March, 1806. Mr. Gill's participation in politics dates from 1872, when he took an active interest in the Republican congressional convention at Bellaire, Ohio, which resulted in the nomination of Lorenzo Danford. Some years later he conducted the campaign of J. T. Updegraff in his successful candidacy for the congressional nomination. In 1894 Mr. Gill was for the first time a candidate for congress, and received the highest number of votes during the deadlock in that convention, but after a careful consideration of his chances withdrew, when his delegates cast their votes for Lorenzo Danford, who was thereupon nominated. He was a delegate to the Republican national convention at St. Louis in 1896, which nominated William McKinley for president.

After the death of Lorenzo Danford in June, 1899, Mr. Gill became a candidate for congress to fill the unexpired term. His candidacy was endorsed by all the labor organizations of the locality, whose members recognized in him their friend and benefactor, and voted for him without regard to party. At the election he received the largest majority ever given a candidate for congress in his district, and in his own county the largest ever given a candidate for any office. Although he had never held office before he had always taken a keen interest in public affairs and in the success of the Republican party.

His father inherited slaves from kindred in Virginia, but was so imbued with the spirit of liberty that he at once gave to them their freedom. The son was imparted the same spirit, and with him it has always been a sacred principle that "the laborer is worthy of his hire." He has been one of the largest employers of labor in his district, and there has never been a reduction of wages in his factory.

Mr. Gill is of Quaker descent; was reared to manhood in Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, a prominent station on the "Underground Railroad," where Benjamin Lundy published his "Genius of Liberty," the pioneer anti-slavery paper of the country, and where public affairs were always matters of great interest. Such environments in early life naturally moulded his thoughts and made him an ardent Republican partisan.

His career in congress, however, will be that of a representative of the business and commercial interests, rather than that of a politician, and his task he brings untiring energy, keen insight and a clear and patriotic conception of his duties as a representative of the people.

He was elected to the Fifty-sixth congress Nov. 7, 1899, as a Republican, from the Sixteenth district, Jefferson, Belmont, Carroll, Harrison and Monroe counties, and was the last representative in congress from Ohio in the nineteenth century, as Jeremiah Morrow was the first.

ROBERT B. GORDON.

Robert B. Gordon of St. Mary's, Auglaize county, was born on a farm near that city Aug. 6, 1855, and was educated in the St. Mary's public schools, graduating from the high school in 1874. In 1886 he was appointed postmaster of St. Mary's by President Cleveland, and in 1889 was elected auditor of Auglaize county, and re-elected in 1891. He was a delegate to the national Democratic convention in 1896. He is the proprietor of an extensive flouring mill at St. Mary's, and is also engaged in dealing in farm implements and agricultural machinery and is an extensive real estate owner.

He was elected to the Fifty-sixth congress in 1898, as a Democrat, from the Fourth district, composed of Auglaize, Allen, Darke, Mercer and Shelby counties.

Mr. Gordon, from his boyhood, was closely identified with the Democratic politics of Auglaize county and the northwestern section of the state. He was connected with the clerical departments of some of the county offices and with the Democratic local committees before he was 21 years old, and while an intense Democrat, he is withal tolerant of the political bias of others. He never permitted the game of politics, however, to interfere with his business affairs, which was first to receive his attention.

Mr. Gordon received the unanimous re-nomination to a second election by his constituents in 1900. His district being largely Democratic makes his election a certainty.

Ruhlin Signed Articles.
Mahanoy City, Pa., Nov. 17.—Gus Ruhlin arrived here and signed articles of agreement, after making a change, for a match with James Jeffries, who had forwarded them to him here, which had already been signed by Jeffries. He favored Siler for referee.

Socrates Tripped.
"No one," gravely announced Socrates, "can arrest the flight of time."
"No?" quizzically interrupted a bystander. "I thought anybody could stop a minute." And even the disciples of the great philosopher were forced to smile behind their togas.

TUAN IS SENTENCED.

SAME FATE FOR PRINCE CHWANG.

Some Other Anti-Foreign Leaders to Receive Punishment—Kang Yi Dead—Some of Them Were Named In Secretary Hay's Note Dated Oct. 3.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Minister Wu received from Director General Sheng the following cablegram, which he communicated to Secretary Hay:

"An imperial decree of Nov. 13, depriving Prince Tuan and Prince Chwang of their ranks and offices and orders them to be imprisoned for life. Prince Yih and Secondary Prince Ying to be imprisoned; Secondary Prince Lien to be deprived of his rank; Duke Lan and Ying Nien to be degraded in rank; Kang Yi being dead, no penalty can be imposed upon him, and Chao Shu Chiao to be degraded, but retained in office; and Tu Hsien to be exiled to the frontier boundary."

The Chinese officials mentioned in the decree are among the highest in China, and comprise most, if not all, of those against whom the powers demanded rigorous punishment.

From a Chinese standpoint, life imprisonment is an extreme penalty to a prince of the blood, but it remains to be seen whether the powers will regard it as adequate to Prince Tuan's offense. The others mentioned were Tuan's active associates and two of them were specifically mentioned for punishment, along with Tuan, in Secretary Hay's note of Oct. 3, advising the Chinese government that this country could expect these officials to receive their just deserts. Kang Yi is one of the officials who died suddenly after the demands for punishment had been made, probably by suicide. Yu Hsien is another who was thought to have committed suicide, but the edict indicates that he is still alive.

As the ministers at Peking also have been considering the question of punishment, it will develop speedily when they lay their demands before the Chinese, whether the edict of the Chinese emperor gives punishments which are regarded as adequate to fit the crimes.

WILL CLOSE GOTHAM TIGHT.

Chief Devery So Declared—Tammany Reform Committee Met.

New York, Nov. 17.—The committee of five appointed by Richard Croker to suppress vice held its first meeting in Tammany hall. John Kellar, one of the committee, invited every citizen of New York, to lay before them any evidence that will help suppress the dives or prove public officials guilty of connivance with criminals or vice.

"Spare no one," was Croker's order to the committee.

Chief of Police Devery has men out to close the dives. He declares the town will be closed tight.

Fire Commissioner John J. Scannell, who was appointed as one of the members of the committee, declined to act for the reason that his duties as fire commissioner are so numerous and pressing as to preclude his services on the committee, which, he said, requires the time of the best men.

President York, of the police board, in speaking of Tammany hall's crusade against vice, said he would go to any length in co-operating with the Tammany committee or any other committee now existing.

INVESTIGATION IN CUBA.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The senate committee on relations with Cuba held a meeting for the purpose of considering reports upon the receipts and expenditures in Cuba. These reports were made under a resolution adopted at the last session of the senate, authorizing the committee to investigate affairs in Cuba, on account of the alleged Neely defalcations.

The committee, after considering the question for some time, adjourned to meet again at the call of the chairman, after congress has convened. While there were about 1,500 pages of printed matter presented, it was stated that several of the accounts were still incomplete. It is estimated that the work will be completed in about a month.

Two Died of Burns.

HOPE NOT ABANDONED.

Little Change Reported In Davis' Condition—Said to Realize Himself.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—The condition of United States Senator Davis showed little change, according to the report from the sick room. Nothing is given out except through the physicians, whose bulletin reported the patient sleeping most of the time, but having a clear brain when awake. Temperature, 100; pulse, 108; respiration, 22. He continues to have a good appetite, but the ability to digest food is of great importance.

The weakened condition of the senator makes recuperation more difficult. His health, shattered in the civil war, was never fully restored. However, his strong will is battling with the disease and hope has not been abandoned, although it is admitted that his condition is very critical. He realizes his serious condition, and, it is stated, has made all arrangements as to his estate.

Last night Dr. A. J. Stone issued this bulletin, being later than the one referred to above:

PROBABLY SIX KILLED.

Fatal Collision on the Lake Shore—Three Known Dead—Three Reported Injured.

Oil City, Nov. 17.—A head-end collision between a Pennsylvania extra freight train and the regular Lake Shore passenger train occurred about two miles west of Polk. Both engines were demolished. All of the passenger coaches left the track and 40 oil and coal cars of the freight were derailed. The wreckage destroyed all telegraph communication. The killed were:

Thomas Sutton, baggage man, of Ashtabula.

John Kane, brakeman of the freight train, aged 40, and a resident of New Castle.

Two male passengers and the news boy, name unknown, are supposed to be dead beneath the wreckage.

BUFFINGTON MAY MAKE DENIAL.

Hub Bub Over Alleged Securing of French Gun Secret.

Washington, Nov. 17.—It is believed General Buffington will send a letter to General Miles, denying he divulged the alleged secret that information about a French gun had been secured by an agent for the United States. The French papers, some of them, are raising a great agitation.

Captain Lewis, the man said to have secured the secret, came here from New York and conferred with General Miles. Secretary Hay said that Ambassador Porter's departure from Paris had absolutely nothing to do with the gun plan commission and that Mr. Leishman will not succeed him, even temporarily. General Porter, Mr. Hay said, had asked for and obtained leave of absence long before the gun matter came up.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH CONGRESS.

Special Prayers and Collects Said—Business Then Taken Up.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 17.—At the seventh session of the twentieth church congress of the Episcopal church of the United States, after the special prayers and collects had been said, Bishop McVicar, the presiding officer, announced the subject of "The ecclesiastical independence of the Protestant Episcopal church."

The writers upon this subject were the Rev. Dr. Charles C. Tiffany and George Zabriski, both of New York. The scheduled speakers were the Rt. Rev. William Creswell Doane, bishop of Albany; the Rev. Dr. S. D. McConnell, of Brooklyn, and the Rev. R. A. White, of Bloomfield, N. J.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Fair in northern, rain in southern portions today. Sunday, probably rain or snow.

Western Pennsylvania—Generally fair and warmer today; Sunday, increasing cloudiness and probably rain. West Virginia—Warmer today; probably rain or snow in northern half. Sunday, fair.

Cowardice of Sharks.

Many tales have been told of how human beings have been devoured by the fish that is known as the "man eater." Although many of these have been greatly exaggerated, they are to a certain extent true. It is also true that sharks have been known to follow a ship for days, picking up and eating that which had been thrown overboard as waste.

Notwithstanding all this the cowardliness of sharks is well known among men who have been much to sea in southern waters. The fiercest shark will get out of the way of a swimmer if the latter sets up a noisy splashing.

A shark fears anything that splashes in the water. Among the south sea islands the natives never go bathing alone, but always in parties of half a dozen or so, in order that they may make a great hubbub in the water and thus frighten away the sharks. Once in awhile a too venturesome swimmer among these natives foolishly detaches himself from his party and forgets to keep up his splashing. Then there is a swish, and the man eater comes up from under him like a flash, and he is gone.

Likewise Mistaken.

A small boy was fishing on Sunday morning. He had a basket of fish alongside of him. A clergyman happened to see him, and, going over to where he was busily watching the bob said:

"You naughty, cruel boy! Don't you know that it is a sin to fish on the Sabbath? Besides the sin, think of the cruelty of it—taking the poor little worm out of the ground and sticking that nasty sharp hook through its body."

"That ain't no worm. That's an artificial fly!" answered the boy.

"Ah, I was mistaken," said the preacher.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 29, 1899.

Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.
